

ONLY 6 OHIO DELEGATION GO TO BORAH

Robert A. Taft, Favorite Son, Gets Other 46

Columbus, O., May 13.—(AP)—Forty six of Ohio's 52 important delegates, incomplete primary returns indicated today, will go to the Republican national convention supporting a "favorite son" and six to Senator William F. Borah as candidates for president.

Forces of Robert A. Taft of Cincinnati, the "favorite son," gained steadily in the state-wide voting on the basis of returns from 5,736 of the state's 3,579 precincts.

While the Borah forces lost out to the regular party organization, President Roosevelt received an overwhelming endorsement in a New Deal "popularity contest."

Gov. Martin L. Davey won the Democratic nomination as the result of nearly a two to one lead over Congressman Stephen M. Young of Cleveland in the counting of ballots in 5,978 precincts.

John S. Knight, Akron publisher and one of Borah's chief supporters in Ohio, said in a statement the "result was not unexpected. Senator Borah made a gallant fight but the odds were too great. Organization and money go a long way x x x and the favorite son had both."

Nominally Committed

Father Coughlin's National Union for Social Justice saw 13 of the 32 candidates for congress it endorsed either definitely nominated or holding comfortable leads. One district, where it endorsed two candidates, had not reported. Only one of its endorsees was unopposed.

Elected delegates will be only nominally committed to support in the convention their choices as declared to fulfill technical legal requirements. Actually they will be free under law and custom to vote as they wish without restriction.

The Roosevelt-Breaking Race

was an impotent contest, except to give a barometer of Democratic sentiment. Its results had no effect on the selection of convention delegates.

Roosevelt won the state's 52 Democratic convention votes with an unopposed slate of delegate-candidates to his party's national convention.

Landon Leads in W. Va.

Charleston, W. Va., May 13.—(AP)—Supporters of Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas were leading today in the contest for delegate seats at the Republican national convention on the basis of scattered returns from West Virginia's state primary.

These sparse returns showed the delegates favoring Landon for President to be running ahead.

The state selects 16 delegates. There were 37 candidates and 37 of them had announced they would abide by the popular vote in the presidential preference primary. In which Sen. William E. Borah and Leo J. Chassee of Milwaukee, Wis., were the only candidates. The pledge, however, is not binding.

Returns from 534 of the state's 2,347 precincts gave Borah 19,364 votes. Chassee's vote was negligible, and it was not tabulated. There was a "write-in" vote for Landon, but such votes are invalid in West Virginia.

From the same number of precincts, President Franklin D. Roosevelt received 47,816 votes in the Democratic presidential preferential voting. His only opponent was Joseph A. Coughmarsh of New Hampshire, whose votes were untabulated.

Landon candidates for delegate at large to the Republican convention were leading returns from 144 precincts showed. Four were chosen from a field of 18 candidates.

One District Unreported

The Landon delegates were ahead in five of the state's six congressional districts, each of which elects two. No returns were in from the sixth district.

All of the Democratic candidates for delegates were announced Roosevelt supporters, assuring the President of the state's 16 convention votes.

The bitter contest for the Democratic nomination for the United States Senate, apparently was settled in favor of Senator M. M. Neely, a Senate veteran.

His opponent, Ralph M. Hiner, former speaker of the House of delegates, conceded his defeat after returns from 547 precincts gave: Neely 45,819; Hiner 14,419.

Hiner was supported by Senator Rush D. Holt, Neely's 30-year-old Democratic colleague.

In the Republican contest for the senatorial nomination, Hugh Ike Shott, Bluefield publisher, held a lead over Frank Nesbitt of Wheeling. The vote from 680 precincts: Shott 21,887; Nesbitt 21,247.

SOME ODDITIES IN TODAY'S A. P. WORLD NEWS REPORT

EXPECTING QUINTS?

Chicago — "Calling all cars," cracked Police Sergeant John Callopy. "Look for a man with 40,000 stolen safety pins, believed to be expecting quintuplets—at least."

The complainant was John Haas, driver for a freight trucking company. He said the thief took the cargo of pins off his truck as it was parked on a west side street.

FISH DECIDED SUIT

Belleville, Ill., May 13.—(AP)—Two lively gold fish won a point for the city of Belleville in a Circuit court hearing here.

They had been kept in creek water which four farmers had asserted was polluted by city sewage.

Noting the fish weren't at all pale around the gills, Circuit Judge D. H. Mudge decided the sewage was not harming the water and denied an injunction asked by the farmers.

HAVE WRONG SPIRIT

Mount Carroll, Ill., May 13.—(AP)—The poor fish—they can't take it.

And Carroll county sportsmen are highly indignant.

Poisoned by alcohol and mash dumped into Waukarusha creek last Saturday when federal revenue tax agents raided a huge illicit still, hundreds of fish are dying along the seven mile stretch of the stream.

The sportsmen moan loudly because only one game fish suffered while carp and bullheads "took it and liked it."

This is conservation week in Illinois but sportsmen say the federal agents have the wrong "spirit."

FRAZIER-LEMKE BILL BEATEN BILL DEBATED

Speaker Byrns Leads the Fight on Alleged Inflation Bill

Washington, May 13.—(AP)—Speaker Byrns took the House floor today in the fight over the Frazier-Lemke farm mortgage refinancing bill to read a letter from William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, opposing passage of the $3,000,000,000 measure.

Green's letter, the speaker said, recited that the A. F. of L. executive council now meeting in Washington had gone on record as against the bill "largely because of its inflationary features."

"We know," the speaker read, "that when inflation of the kind proposed in this bill is adopted, commodity prices rise and wages stand still."

The speaker's appearance on the floor was a surprise move of the House leadership which is fighting passage of the bill. Byrns was greeted with applause both before he started speaking and after he concluded.

A few moments before, in a move to break down some of the opposition, Rep. Boileau (D-Wis.) told the House that supporters of the bill definitely would offer an amendment to limit loans on farm lands to 80 per cent of the fair value of the lands.

House leaders planned to keep the House in session for the final ballot today.

The bill would authorize the printing of $3,000,000,000 in new money to refinance farm indebtedness. Farmers would pay 1 1/2 per cent on the principal annually over 47 years.

KEWANEE HOME COMING

Kewanee—Among the Kewanee-born speakers at a homecoming banquet attended by 600 persons were Donald P. Davis, president of General Mills, Inc., Minneapolis; Mrs. Fannie Glidden, Dean of Women of Knox College, Galesburg, Ill.; President Herbert McComb Moore of Lake Forest, Ill., College and Judge Denis E. Sullivan of the Appellate court at Chicago.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 13.—(AP)—Detective Captain Sherman Cannon said today he was looking for a man who yesterday told him he was "Representative O'Keefe of Illinois" and that he had been shadowed from Miami to Jacksonville by four men.

Captain Cannon said he assigned detectives to guard the man during a two-hour stop between trains and then drove him to the railroad station. There, the captain said, the man jumped out of the automobile and ran away.

In Chicago, Mrs. Raymond O'Keefe, wife of a representative, from that city, said her husband had arrived in Miami Saturday with Representatives Charles Wheeler and John McSweeney, both of Chicago, and that the men were due back in Springfield today.

She said she did not know any reason why her husband would have been followed.

Captain Cannon said the man who appealed for aid told him he knew of no reasons for a plot except that he had been in a legislative fight over a bus matter and may have made enemies.

If found here, Captain Cannon said, the man would be held for questioning.

Mystery in Disappearance of Member of Illinois House in Jacksonville, Fla., on Tuesday

MORGENTHAU IN EXPLANATION OF NEW TAX SCHEME

Secretary's Figures Bear Out Contentions of Byrd

Washington, May 13.—(AP)—Secretary Morgenthau told the Senate finance committee today that 283 of the 600 corporations which made more than a million dollars in 1934 would have paid less taxes under the plan to base levies on undistributed profits.

At the same time, treasury experts told the committee they were confident an equal number of the corporations would have had to pay more taxes under the contested corporate tax plan in the house bill than they actually paid under the present flat corporate tax levy.

Detailed statistics on the number of corporations which would have paid more were not submitted by Morgenthau today, as they had not been requested, but he was asked to prepare them.

His figures, laid before the committee in a closed session, showed that 600 corporations reported net income of $1,000,000 or more in 1934. If they should have distributed their earnings under the new plan in the way they actually did, 283 would have had their taxes reduced by 50 per cent, and 138 of these would have paid nothing.

Proves Byrd's Charge

Senator Byrd (D-Va.), who had requested the information, told newsmen the figures "prove my contention that many prosperous companies will evade taxes" under the proposal for taxing corporations only upon how much of their income they withhold from distribution.

"I am more convinced than ever that the bill is very much to the aid of the strong company and disastrous to the small company," Byrd added.

As Morgenthau went before the committee for the second time to defend the administration's plan for taxing undistributed corporate profits, there were strong indications that the Senators were leaning toward a compromise.

Senator Harrison (D-Miss.), chairman, sought to smooth over the troubled waters with a proposal for imposing a flat 15 per cent tax on net corporation income with surtaxes ranging from 5 to 45 per cent if more than 30 per cent of earnings were withheld from distribution.

HOLDUP FRUSTRATED

Peoria, Ill.—The householder whose telephone Duane Cashen, 11, asked permission to use, indignantly refused. Duane dashed to the next house, had better luck, rang the police department and gasped:

"I was just going past a grocery store and I heard somebody say 'stick 'em up.' Must be a robbery."

The police arrived presently and seized Darrell V. Lyons, 24. They said he confessed holding up the groceryman.

Repair Lowell Road.

Highway Commissioner James Devine with a force of WPA workers is repairing two bad spots on the Lowell park road which appeared this spring between the Dixon Country club road and the Illinois Central tracks. The county road and bridge committee and County Highway Superintendent Leake conducted an inspection of this road recently, when the latter, strongly advised the application of a seal coat at once to prevent the entire destruction of the road, which has been in service only about nine months.

One of the county highway officials today condemned the expenditure of the large sum in the improvement of the Lowell park road under the present type of construction as being a "criminal waste of money" and maintained that a concrete highway should have been constructed instead of the type selected.

"Unless a seal coat is applied to the Lowell park at once, there will be practically no road on that location before the end of the year," Superintendent Leake stated in referring to the present condition of the stretch.

Body of Veteran is Unclaimed: Will be Buried Here Friday

The body of Vincent Liberman of Buffalo, N. Y., remained unclaimed today and will probably be buried in Oakwood cemetery here some time Friday. Coroner Frank M. Banker telegraphed a brother Nick Liberman at Buffalo yesterday and an answer received this morning stated that he was without sufficient funds to provide burial and advised the burial of the body at the county's expense. Telegrams received by Chief of Police J. D. Van Bibber yesterday from a sister in Twin Falls, Idaho, and another brother in Hollywood, Cal., referred the local authorities to the brother in Buffalo. The deceased is said to have been a veteran of the Spanish-American and World Wars.

Lowell Park Road Breaking Down Under Traffic: Seal Coat Badly Needed

Supt. Leake Urges Immediate Care of Highway

The Lowell park road from the Lee county line to the Pines road is to be improved this summer. The contract for the grading and building of drainage structures has been awarded to Anderson Brothers of Rockford and on completion of their contract, the road will be surfaced with either crushed stone or gravel, the contract for which is to be let Friday at Springfield.

After the surfacing material has been sufficiently worn down, it is expected that a black top substance will be applied.

Another important highway project was reported to have been well under way today at the department highway offices here, which will affect Dixon. The long discussed connecting highway extending from Cavanaugh's corners, three miles south of Polo, southwest to state route 6, the Lincoln highway, will be started this summer. The latest reports were to the effect that the connecting link would intersect at the ball park corners, just east of Sterling. The firm of Gund & Graham of Freeport has been awarded the contract for the heavy grading work. The construction of bridges, culverts and drainage structures has been awarded in two sections to the A. Olson company of Waterloo, Iowa, and Fred Kaney of Freeport.

Not Hard Surface.

Reports today indicated that the connecting highway would not be of a hard surface type, but in all probability will be of crushed stone or gravel which will be applied by the state maintenance forces. This particular connecting highway has been the subject of much discussion as to location, one faction favoring the routing of the road directly south from Cavanaugh's corners to connect with the Lincoln highway at the Prairieville corners, while a second organized effort was exerted to bring the route southeast to the ball park corners, just east of Sterling. It was originally planned to construct a concrete connecting route, but rumors indicated today that it would be an all season type of roadway.

Broken in World War

(The power of this alliance was broken at the outset of the World War when Italy turned her back on Kaiser Wilhelm and Emperor Franz Josef to throw in her lot with France, Great Britain, and Russia—the "Entente Cordiale.")

Diplomats said they believed Mussolini would try to ascertain the eventual attitude of the council of the council members concerning Italian sovereignty over Ethiopia and the continuance of economic and financial sanctions.

They said they believed it likely that Mussolini would resign from the league before the council has a chance to discuss the question if he thinks the council members will remain adamant on both points.

Hungarian spokesmen said they anticipated that if Mussolini breaks with the league, he will seek to influence Hungary and Austria to do likewise.

Germany Interested

Some Geneva diplomats, meanwhile said they gathered from German newspapers' outspoken admiration for Il Duce's Ethiopian conquest that Germany is beginning to find Italy "more interesting."

This added to the importance given rumors that Mussolini may side with the Teutonic nations in an alliance.

The league council, concerned by possibilities of Italian resignation, dropped formal consideration of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict temporarily today, turning to less controversial questions.

A decision in the argument for or against lifting sanctions was put off for some weeks, however, by the council's postponement until June 15 of further discussion of the East African dispute.

Sues to Recover Pay for Turkeys

Roland Woodrow and George Ikens who conduct a turkey raising farm near Lee Center, through their attorneys Elwin Bunnell and Fremont Kaufman, have filed a complaint at law action in the Lee county Circuit court against N. P. Binz of Rochelle to collect $468.20. The complaint seeks to collect the entire amount, plus the court costs.

The complainant set forth that on Dec. 18, 1935, Binz obtained 1,666 pounds of turkeys for which he was to have paid the sum of $485.15 and in a smaller lot, secured 65 pounds at a price of $10.05, a total of $468.20. The turkeys were delivered to A. Rosenbusch, an agent of Binz, the complaint states, and repeated requests for payment have been refused by the defendant.

"40 & 8" PARADE MARRIED BY DISGRACEFUL FIGHT

The streets in the business district were well filled last evening to witness the parade of the members of the Lee county 40-8 organization, which brought delegations from several cities in this section. The parade passed through the business district and terminated at the Legion hall where the initiation of a large class of candidates followed.

As the parade ended, a disgraceful street fight ensued which attracted a large crowd. A group said to have numbered about 20 youths, after ransacking garbage cans and gathering a supply of partly decomposed fruits and vegetables, opened a barrage on the parade as they returned to their headquarters. Some of the paradees attempted to halt the brawls and a general fight ensued in which some of the veterans received discolored optics. No arrests were made and it was intimated that none were expected until complaints were lodged against the disturbers by some of the individual paradees who were the victims of the attack and resultant beatings.

Called to the Warden's Office

Bernovich was quoted by Sanders as saying:

"I staged the holdup myself. After Zimmerman turned over $100 to me, he resisted and I guess we both lost our heads."

"During the scuffle I shot him. The next morning I noticed in the Peoria papers that Zimmerman had named me, and I fled, going to St. Louis."

Bowling after recognizing "Larry" as Bernovich told V. T. Adamson, superintendent of the bureau of identification at the prison, and Adamson sent pictures to Peoria where the identification was made by the youth's father, Peter Bernovich, and by Horn and Peters, Houser.

After the Zimmerman slaying, Bernovich, as Larry, was convicted in St. Louis on a robbery charge and sentenced to five years in the Alagoa reformatory near here.

Escaping from the reformatory last September, he and three other inmates abducted Dr. Herbert Taylor of Jefferson City, later releasing him but taking his motor car.

Bernovich was captured in Chicago and on his return here pleaded guilty to the robbery. He was given an additional five-year term and transferred to the state prison.

Zimmerman before dying named Bernovich as his assailant.

This finding supported the belief of Lieut. Otto Erlanson, chief of the homicide squad, that the enigmatic crime was perpetrated by some one familiar with the hotel.

Two male employees, Night Clerk Sylvester Cikowski, 28, and Fireman Nicholas Franzen, 49, were tested under the lie detector. But officials reported the instrument indicated they told the truth concerning their activities the night of the slaying.

Cikowski told officials he last saw Mrs. Guild when he admitted her to the hotel at 12:30 A. M. Saturday. Sergeant Healey said Franzen informed him that Cikowski once discussed seeking death in the electric chair as an alternative to suicide. Healey quoted Franzen:

"Cikowski said 'I'll commit some crime and they'll have to kill me.'"

Franklin Man Has Freak Apple Tree

Upon reading an account of a freak apple tree which is blooming in Rock Falls, a Lee county booster flew to the colors with a story that equals the Rock Falls man's.

J. E. Wolf of Franklin Grove claims he has a yellow transparent that has been bearing fruit on half the tree while the other half is barren, each half of the tree alternating in productivity with each successive year.

This year the southside of the tree is full of bloom says Wolf, and the northside has none. Last year the reverse situation existed. Every year is an apple year—or half a one—for Wolf's tree.

All Time Record of Auto Registrations

Springfield, Ill., May 13.—(AP)—An all-time record for the registration of passenger autos in the first four months of the year was set in 1936. Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes announced that 1,243,581 passenger cars were registered, comparing with 1,159,581 for the same period last year.

FRUITS CONFIRMED.

Washington, May 13.—(AP)—Postmasters confirmed by the senate today included George J. Fruin of Dixon, Ill., and Walter L. Reed of Galena, Ill.

Republican Campaign Matter Mutilated While in U. S. Mail Committee Chairman Alleges

Washington, May 13.—(AP)—Chairman Henry P. Fletcher of the Republican national committee charged today in an open letter to Postmaster General Farley that Republican campaign matter had been "mutilated" while in the mails.

Fletcher asked Farley to "give the necessary orders to end such tactics."

Making public the letter, Fletcher also issued a statement saying he was "certain that the classified civil service personnel of the postal service is both honest and efficient."

PEORIA KILLER FOUND IN MISSOURI; CONVICT

Youth Admits Murder of Telegrapher There January 22, 1935

Jefferson City, Mo., May 13.—(AP)—Police Chief Fred Nussbaum of Peoria, Ill., was here today to question and possibly seek the extradition of Joseph Bernovich, 23-year-old Missouri penitentiary convict and the confessed slayer of Charles R. Zimmerman of Peoria.

Nussbaum was accompanied by Joseph Horn and Mrs. Margaret Houser, employees of a telegraph office where Zimmerman, its night manager, was slain in a hold-up January 22, 1935. Bernovich had worked at the same office as a messenger boy.

Bernovich, serving a five year sentence as William Larry of Chicago for the robbery of a Jefferson City physician, was identified as the person sought for the slaying by Paul Bowling, prison guard, from a picture in a detective magazine.

The youth, Warden J. M. Sanders said last night, readily admitted his identity and the Illinois slaying.

Confession Quoted

Called to the warden's office, Bernovich was quoted by Sanders as saying:

"I staged the holdup myself. After Zimmerman turned over $100 to me, he resisted and I guess we both lost our heads."

"During the scuffle I shot him. The next morning I noticed in the Peoria papers that Zimmerman had named me, and I fled, going to St. Louis."

Bowling after recognizing "Larry" as Bernovich told V. T. Adamson, superintendent of the bureau of identification at the prison, and Adamson sent pictures to Peoria where the identification was made by the youth's father, Peter Bernovich, and by Horn and Peters, Houser.

Ex-Federal Convict May be a Fugitive of Illinois Prison

Wichita, Kas., May 13.—(AP)—Charley Ray, former Wichita bootlegger and barbecue stand proprietor, was held in the county jail here today for Illinois authorities who said his fingerprints correspond with William Henry Dixon who escaped from the Southern Illinois penitentiary at Menard June 15, 1921 where he was serving a term for murder. Ray was paroled from the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth 10 days ago. He had been sent there from Wichita on sentence of a year and a day for liquor violation.

Wanted of Chase

That the will of the wisp fugitive swayed of the chase shortly before his capture came in reports from Los Angeles, where an unnamed official in the Federal building was quoted as saying a man he later identified as Robinson came to his office, four days before his capture and said he wanted to surrender.

The Los Angeles Times quoted the official as saying he told the visitor where the Department of Justice offices were, after which the man left the office.

"I thought no more about the matter until I saw the pictures of Robinson in the papers," the official was quoted. "He was the strange visitor in my office."

ROBINSON'S PLEA LIKELY TO BE GUILTY

Confessed Kidnaper To Be Taken to Court Today

Louisville, Ky., May 13.—(AP)—Defense steps for Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., facing arraignment on charges of kidnapping Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll, were taken in two cities today as a department of justice agent quoted him as saying he would plead guilty if his "lawyer will let him."

With defense counsel not definitely employed, Federal Judge Elwood Hamilton set back the arraignment to 4 P. M. Central time, today.

Montel S. Ross, Nashville, Tenn., attorney charged that young Robinson was held in a "dungeon" and added, "I am perfectly aware of what they're doing to him."

"I don't believe any defendant, no matter what offense is charged, should be permitted to plead guilty before consulting competent legal advisers," Ross said.

Ready to Plead Guilty.

O. C. Dewey, in charge of the Louisville office of the Department of Justice, said Robinson told him that since he already had confessed the kidnapping he might as well plead guilty. Dewey did not reveal whether the plea would be conditional upon a life sentence.

The defendant's father, Thomas H. Robinson, Sr., said at Nashville that he and Ross, who he said had been retained to defend his son, planned to leave some time today for Louisville. Arraignment of Robinson, Jr., had been scheduled for 2 P. M. (Central Standard time) today in federal district court.

United States District Attorney Bunk Garner, however, said he anticipated a plea of guilty, with a probable sentence to life imprisonment to follow, although he insisted he had "no definite information."

Neither did he have any information to indicate the government would accept a guilty plea with the understanding the death penalty would not be exact.

Could Exact Death

The extreme penalty could be exacted in the Stoll kidnapping case, as the young wife of a wealthy Louisville oil executive was beaten when she was kidnapped in 1934 and held captive in an Indianapolis apartment.

Robinson was arrested in Glendale, Calif., Monday night.

The life of the Tennessee fugitive, during the many months when he was the object of a nation-wide manhunt, was told by E. J. Connelley, chief of the Cincinnati office of the Federal bureau of investigation after Robinson had been grilled for several hours.

He "freely admitted" kidnapping Mrs. Stoll, Connelley told reporters. Harried by authorities, he spent most of the ransom money to keep ahead of the chase. He made several trips between California and New York, Connelley said, once by plane.

That the will of the wisp fugitive swayed of the chase shortly before his capture came in reports from Los Angeles, where an unnamed official in the Federal building was quoted as saying a man he later identified as Robinson came to his office, four days before his capture and said he wanted to surrender.

TERSE ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED IN DIXON DURING DAY

HAD FALSE ALARM

The fire department was called to the A. H. Feger residence, 804 East Second street yesterday afternoon at 3:30. A furnace in the house had filled the residence with smoke, which was the only damage.

FACES FRAUD CHARGE

John Nagle was arrested this morning by Chief Van Bibber and taken before Justice W. T. Ferrill, where a warrant charging the drawing of checks to defraud was preferred. The preliminary hearing was continued until May 25 and Nagle was placed under bond of $1,000 which he was unable to furnish and he was committed to the county jail.

WILL IS PROBATED

The will of the late Murvin M. Betzner of Fairfax, S. D., whose death occurred February 15, 1936, was admitted to probate before Judge Leech this morning. The inventory lists real estate of the value of $6,200 and personal property valued at $2,500, which is to be distributed equally among two daughters, Mrs. Genevieve B. Haley of Dixon and Mrs. Grace R. Updike of Hollywood, Calif. Richard T. Haley of this city is named executor of the estate.

NEW THEORIES IN HOTEL CASE

Suggest Woman May Have Killed Mrs. Lillian Guild

Chicago, May 13.—(AP)—A theory that a woman slew Mrs. Lillian Guild in her room at the Y. W. C. A. hotel was studied by detectives today after four days of intensive investigation failed to pierce the shell of mystery surrounding the crime.

Sergeant Daniel Healey suggested a woman of Amazonian strength might have beaten the 50-year-old antique dealer to death with a brick when interrupted in a burglary early Saturday.

Clarence W. Muehlbeier examined the death instrument under a microscope and concluded it had not been carried into the women's hostelry. He said similar bricks, coated with the same type of dust, were found in the basement of the building.

Slayer Knew Hotel

This finding supported the belief of Lieut. Otto Erlanson, chief of the homicide squad, that the enigmatic crime was perpetrated by some one familiar with the hotel.

Two male employees, Night Clerk Sylvester Cikowski, 28, and Fireman Nicholas Franzen, 49, were tested under the lie detector. But officials reported the instrument indicated they told the truth concerning their activities the night of the slaying.

The life of the Tennessee fugitive, during the many months when he was the object of a nation-wide manhunt, was told by E. J. Connelley, chief of the Cincinnati office of the Federal bureau of investigation after Robinson had been grilled for several hours.

He "freely admitted" kidnapping Mrs. Stoll, Connelley told reporters. Harried by authorities, he spent most of the ransom money to keep ahead of the chase. He made several trips between California and New York, Connelley said, once by plane.

That the will of the wisp fugitive swayed of the chase shortly before his capture came in reports from Los Angeles, where an unnamed official in the Federal building was quoted as saying a man he later identified as Robinson came to his office, four days before his capture and said he wanted to surrender.

The Los Angeles Times quoted the official as saying he told the visitor where the Department of Justice offices were, after which the man left the office.

"I thought no more about the matter until I saw the pictures of Robinson in the papers," the official was quoted. "He was the strange visitor in my office."

Robinson's Plea Likely To Be Guilty

Louisville, Ky., May 13.—(AP)—Defense steps for Thomas H. Robinson, Jr., facing arraignment on charges of kidnapping Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll, were taken in two cities today as a department of justice agent quoted him as saying he would plead guilty if his "lawyer will let him."

With defense counsel not definitely employed, Federal Judge Elwood Hamilton set back the arraignment to 4 P. M. Central time, today.

Man, Six Cattle Injured in Accident at Carlson Curve

Wendell Dorn of Des Moines, Ia., a hitch hiker who secured a ride to Chicago on a cattle truck owned by George Buck of State Center, Ia., and driven by Virgil Weuve of that city, is in the Katherine Shaw Bethea hospital here with a broken nose and badly bruised face, the result of an accident at the curve east of the William Carlson farm on the Lincoln Highway, west of Dixon, at 10:30 o'clock last night.

Because of the dense fog at the time Weuve missed the sharp curve and the truck plowed into the ditch, missing a culvert and crashing sideways into a tree. Six of 14 head of cattle, which comprised Weuve's cargo, were so badly injured State Policeman Ed Mahan of Dixon destroyed them.

The officer was returning to Dixon from the state office east of Sterling and was right behind the truck when the accident occurred. He took the injured Dorn to the hospital here.

The dead are: Jo Dickinson, hat check girl, San Francisco.

Mrs. Elsie Marler, 32, of Petaluma, Calif., whose husband formerly was part owner of the Shamrock Club.

Robert Patton, Berkeley, Calif. John Mason, San Francisco.

The fire started at the height of gaiety during the torch dance of Betty Blossom, performer at the club.

As she danced about the darkened, low ceiling room with a torch in each hand, she kicked one of the torches so that its flames leapt up to the flimsy draperies which covered the entire room.

Panic Swept Crowd

Flames swept quickly through the decorations. Panic swept the crowd.

Screaming, shouting, they dashed for the only exit. Miss Dickinson was in their path. She was knocked down and trampled to death.

Some collapsed on the dance floor. Others dived into dressing rooms or the ice box.

The flames were quickly smothered without spreading to other parts of the two story building. Firemen at first thought everyone escaped. They were spurred to action by the screams of escaped entertainers, that others were still in the club.

"It was criminal," said Charles Dulles, captain of police inspectors on an inspection. "There was no air in the place."

"There was only one exit and entrance at the foot of a steep stairway with an abrupt right angle turn."

"All the windows were boarded up."

"I am going through every night club in San Francisco to see if such conditions obtain elsewhere."

Crowds Hampered Firemen

Mrs. Marler, one of the victims and wife of Bob Forrest Marler who owns the Club Redwood near Petaluma, had come to San Francisco to visit old friends at the Shamrock and "for a good time."

Arriving firemen, fighting against crowds which had poured onto the street from surrounding hotels and apartment houses, were blocked further by the tangled mass struggling from the exit.

Smoke continued to billow from doors and windows after the flames, which had swept the interior of the club, were checked by streams of water.

The choking firemen then pressed through the smoke to bring out the bodies they could see lying on the floor.

Three members of the orchestra—Bob Wilde, Walter King and Don Wolery—were found huddled in the ice box, into which they had dived. Wolery was burned and the others were suffering from smoke and shock.

All of the injured, except Mrs. Jerry Hartley, dancer, Peter Bruhm, a fireman, and Robert Morgan, patron, were treated at an emergency hospital and sent to their homes. None of the three was believed fatally injured.

Light shades of blue in almost any article of clothing have been found not sun-fast.

The ladies served refreshments of coffee, sandwiches and cake at the close of the program. The hall was crowded, several new members were added and everyone endorsed the Townsend plan.

England's only perpetual legal holidays are known as "bank holidays." These have been celebrated there since 1871.

FOUR KILLED IN PANIC IN DANCE HALL IN 'FRISCO

One Trampled to Death; Others Suffocated in Closed Room

San Francisco, May 13—(AP)—Two men and two women were killed early today when the toe of a torch dancer transformed a gay San Francisco night club into a flaming hall of horror.

The hat check girl was trampled to death as the 50 patrons stampeded from the lone exit from the Shamrock Club at 560 Geary street in the hotel district of downtown San Francisco. The other three died of suffocation in the closed second floor room.

Nine persons were injured, three of them so seriously they were kept at the emergency hospital where all were treated.

The dead are: Jo Dickinson, hat check girl, San Francisco.

Mrs. Elsie Marler, 32, of Petaluma, Calif., whose husband formerly was part owner of the Shamrock Club.

Happy Climax for P. E. O. Calendar Year

A happy climax to the calendar year of Chapter A.C. P. E. O., was the picnic luncheon held Monday at the spacious country home of Mrs. Wilbur Hutchinson, Mrs. H. M. Price assisting. The house was prettily decorated with spring flowers, and the large dining table and the four small tables were each centered with a fragrant bouquet.

After the bountiful luncheon served cafeteria style, the members listened to most interesting and informative reports from the state convention held recently at the Palmer House in Chicago. These were given by Mrs. Raymond Worsley, president of Chapter A.C. and by Mrs. Helen McNamara, who is vice president.

Mrs. Lyons of Tacoma, Wash., a sister of Mrs. J. Frank Young, who is visiting at the Dr. Young home, and who is a member of a P. E. O. Chapter in Tacoma, was a guest at the luncheon.

After a discussion of plans for the summer and early fall, the members dispersed, having spent a delightful afternoon in beautiful country surroundings.

Mrs. Bardwell in Mendota Address

Mrs. H. U. Bardwell talked last evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Cook in Mendota on "Anti-Bellum Homes," her address telling of homes in Natchez, Miss.

Mrs. Bardwell has visited several times in Mississippi and neighboring states, while on southern trips. Her talk was given before the Garden Club, composed of some twenty-five members. This a very active club, the members doing much to beautify their city. One enjoyable feature of the club meetings is the exchange of plants by the members, which gives each member quite a variety to choose from.

The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

AM. WAR MOTHERS TO MEET FRIDAY

The American War Mothers will hold an all day meeting Friday, with picnic dinner at noon, at the home of Mrs. Hannah Miller.

MISS ORTIS HAS BEEN ACCREDITED IN CHORUS

Miss Leone Ort, popular and talented Dixon vocalist, who recently took the trial for a position in the St. Louis Muny Chorus of 1936, has been advised that she has been accepted.

ELKS LADIES CLUB TO MEET

A meeting of the Elks' Ladies club will be held at 2 P. M. Friday at the clubrooms.

Dinner Dance a Most Enjoyable Affair at Colonial Inn

One of the most delightful events of the spring social season was enjoyed by forty-six guests attending the dinner dance last evening at the Colonial Inn in Grand Detour.

The hosts and hostesses for the happy evening were Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Gearhart and Attorney and Mrs. Gower Gehant.

The guests were seated at two long tables in the spacious dining room at the Colonial. One table was gorgeously decorated in silver and violet shades, with violets being the flowers featured. The other table was equally lovely in crystal and yellow, with tulips being the flowers employed. Lovely spring flowers greeted everyone in graceful bouquets about the rooms.

LATENT THINGS

By Joseph Fort Newton

"My husband has changed," a woman tells me. "Actually I have hardly known him for the last two years and more. He is different from the man I married, and it makes life difficult for me."

"To be sure, he is a man of another race, and that may have something to do with it. Anyway, something has happened to him, something beyond my understanding, and it almost changes his personality."

Such mixed marriages can be very happy, if the races are not too unlike, not too far apart. Otherwise it can be tragic, as has happened more than once in my observation, and it makes a problem.

My reader does not say to what race her husband belongs. But if she has read the famous story, "The Turnstile" by A. E. Mason, she will understand my point. That story deals with her situation ably.

A girl in the story is on the eve of being married, and one of her boy friends, though he knows nothing against the young man, except that he is of another race, and somewhat older, has misgivings.

"I am afraid of the latent things," he says. "I am afraid of the seeds which may have been sown in him during those years, and of which the plant has not yet shown. I am afraid of latent desires, fancies, ambitions, latent cravings, of which he is not yet aware."

"Some day they may come to life with overwhelming strength," he goes on, meditatively. "Have you not seen men change for an apparent reason to the observer, drop from all their established habits, and begin on another plane? I have, and that's what I am afraid of now."

The story goes on to tell how it worked out—how some old racial craving suddenly seized the man, in which his wife had no share, and which slowly pulled them apart, making them almost strangers.

It is often so, even between two people of the same race. A man may be separated from his wife by disintegration—or he may grow away from her entirely, grow beyond her because she does not grow.

Life is a strange adventure, making or unmaking us in many ways.

(Copyright, 1936, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Girls of Assam do all the proposing. After the marriage, the husband must live with his wife's people.

State Convention Ill. League Women Voters, Chicago, 18th

State convention of the Illinois League of Women Voters opens at a twelve o'clock breakfast in the Red Lacquer Room at the Palmer House in Chicago, on Monday, May 18. Local League presidents will sit at the speakers' table and talk about activities of the past year.

The six departments of the league will have that afternoon and evening for separate program meetings. From two o'clock to six o'clock the departments present:

Department of Government and Economic Welfare

Minimum Wage—Miss Anne Davis, Supervisor, Minimum Wage Division, Illinois State Department of Labor.

Unemployment Insurance—Miss Grace Abbott, Professor of Public Welfare, University of Chicago.

Department of Government and Its Operation

Taxation—Mrs. Walter S. Greenough, National Chairman, Department of Government and Its Operation.

Department of Government and the Legal Status of Women

Institute and Discussion—Leader Mrs. Raymond S. Simons, State Chairman, Speakers: Mrs. Franklin Davis, Peoria; Mrs. Beatrice Podell, Chicago; Miss Vera Binks, Kewanee.

At Department dinners: Department of Government and Child Welfare

Public Health Organization—Miss Gertrude Kroeger, Rosenwald Foundation.

The Juvenile Court—Miss Pearl Hart, Public Defender of the Woman's Court.

Public Welfare Organization—Mrs. Florence Fifer Bohrer, Vice-President, Illinois Conference of Social Welfare, Director, National League of Women Voters.

Department of Government and Education

Report of Advisory Committee—Eugene S. Lawler, Professor of Education, Northwestern University, Member of Advisory Committee.

Departments of Government and Economic Welfare and Government and Foreign Policy

Reciprocal Trade Agreements—Harry D. Gideonse, Associate Professor of Economics, University of Chicago.

Department of Government and Its Operation

Political Parties in the Coming Campaign—Jerome G. Kervin, Associate Professor of Political Science, University of Chicago.

Department of Government and the Legal Status of Women

Legal Status as Seen from the Viewpoint of Social Hygiene—Dr. Rachelle S. Yarros, Director Illinois League of Women Voters.

Presiding over the business sessions of the convention on Tuesday, May 19th, and Wednesday, May 20, will be Mrs. Frank P. Nixon, President of the Illinois League of Women Voters.

Carroll Sudler is serving as Convention Chairman. At these meetings a program of work for study and support will be adopted.

One of the highlights of the convention is the traditional dinner on Tuesday night for which a most interesting program has been arranged and to which men are invited. At the speakers' table will be three Illinois women recently honored at the National Convention: Mrs. Florence Fifer Bohrer, elected one of four Directors-at-large of the National League, Mrs. William G. Hibbard, appointed National Finance Chairman, and Mrs. Quincy Wright, reappointed National Chairman of Government and Foreign Policy.

The convention closes formally with a final luncheon Wednesday noon for which unusual plans are being made.

Mrs. Whitson Entertains Practical Club

Tuesday afternoon, May 12, the members of the Practical Club met with Mrs. W. E. Whitson, 515 Highland avenue. The home was very attractive with bouquets of spring flowers. Mrs. R. E. Worsley conducted a questionnaire which proved both helpful and entertaining. A magazine article of vital interest to mothers was read by Mrs. D. G. Palmer and was followed by a discussion. During the pleasant social hour, Mrs. Whitson served most delicious refreshments.

Palmyra Unit and South Dixon Units at Mensch Home

The meeting of the Palmyra and South Dixon Home Bureau Units will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Mensch in Palmyra. Mrs. Syverud, the adviser, will give the lesson on the Principles of Bread Making. Both Units had no meeting this week and the South Dixon Unit is invited to meet with Palmyra.

Sterling French Club Entertains Dixon Club

The French club of Sterling entertained the French club of Dixon at the Sterling high school last evening and pictures taken by the Bitterhoff family during their European travels were exhibited and were most interesting.

Tapiocha Chocolate Cream

1/4 cup granulated tapiocha
1 cup water
2 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 squares chocolate, melted
2 egg yolks
2 egg whites, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon butter

Blend tapiocha with water, let stand five minutes, add milk, sugar, and salt. Add chocolate and cook 25 minutes in double boiler. Stir frequently. Add yolks and cook two minutes, cool slightly and add remaining ingredients. Chill and serve with cream.

Entertain So. Dix-on Farm Bureau and Members Families

The South Dixon Unit of the Farm Bureau members and their families met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shippert, May 8th.

Chairman Edward Schick called the meeting to order at the usual hour, all singing America, followed by reading of the minutes of the last meeting in April, and the roll call.

After a short business meeting, Mrs. Edward Schick gave a talk on their trip out west which was most interesting. Mrs. Wm. Fritts gave several whistling solos.

Mrs. Charles Hank gave an enjoyable reading on Mother, for Mother's Day.

Tempting refreshments were served by the ladies.

The meeting adjourned to meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cortright, June 12.

Mr. Cortright has a very interesting program arranged.

Edward VII Visited Relative of Dixonites

The Sunday Tribune of Chicago says: Mrs. Warren Conrad Durkes, Dixon, Ill., writes us that when Edward VII, as Prince of Wales, visited this country, he was a guest at the plantation of her grandfather in Kentucky, where the young prince enjoyed some shooting of which he was fond.

Mrs. Durkes' father, William B. Steel, an Illinois pioneer now nearing his 90th milestone, is a devoted reader of the Tribune, and of "When Chicago Was Young" column.

We Print an Echo Of The Long Ago

A lady who keeps abreast of current events and things up-to-date, in looking over some old papers the other day, discovered the following clipping, yellow with age, handed down to her, and which she states must be some forty odd years old. It has much merit, although it is perhaps a bit trite, but we reprint it for our readers—

Let It Go

I've learned the smoothest ways are best; Contentment makes a man grow cold;

If I am warm, my neighbor cool, I just admit that it is cold. If I am sure that it will rain, And Neighbor Smith says it will snow,

Immediately I say Correct, And grin and bow and let it go.

A thousand joits and jars I miss, A thousand deadwalls I avoid, By letting Smith think he's a star, When he is but an asteroid.

What boots it if his chatter be? Not so at all, or rightly so; The smoothest thing for me is just To grin and bow, and let it go.

I find that forty-seven men Think forty-seven ways of me; Let them think forty-seven ways, And multiply by three times three!

What! Shall I rip and rant and roar? To prove I'm this or that or so? I'd wear my soul to rags, and then Regret I hadn't let it go.

I get a book that all men say Draws angels down and mortals up, And find the author is a blob Of turgid stupor or a pup.

The neighbors purse their lips and say "This author has the true soul flow!"

I feel the lad will shortly fall But I—I simply let it go.

Once I heard Patti, years ago, In that great box along the lake, The "Auditorium," say no more, And let it go for mercy sake.

Six thousand other fools were there; Ah, me, it was a Folly Show, At dollars three per capita— I coughed the cash, and let it go.

She wore a dress so exquisite 'Twas hardly visible from where I lopped and lolled and languished in.

A sleepy hollow of a chair, But Mrs. News said "marvelous!" 'Twas Worth of Paris made it, so I said I'd not molest the gown, But let the gossamerie go.

She sang! Six thousand fools transfixed With bated breaths, hung on each word: "La paglioni, macarshi-a-ah do ra fa."

Or some such gibberish I heard Italian area. This I know: 'Twas hard on me; I only grinned And groaned and feebly let it go.

When she swept from the stage, Oh my! The crazy people! murmurs ring:

"What volume, register and tone!" "Expression! The divinity thing!" All "I know, but shall I sigh against a whirlwind blow? I buttoned up the cash I'd left— But pretty soon I let it go.

Miss Goldie Sarver Weds in Milwaukee

Miss Goldie Sarver, daughter of Mrs. Addie Sarver of Dixon, was married to Louis Rouniker of Milwaukee, Wis., in that city, Saturday, May 9. The bride is a Dixon girl with many friends here. She has been visiting relatives in Milwaukee for some time. A large party was planned for the bride and bridegroom which was attended by fifty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Rouniker will make their home in Milwaukee where he is employed. They have the best wishes of many friends for happiness.

Nurses Alumni to Give Benefit Dance

The Nurses Alumni Association will sponsor a benefit dance to be held on the evening of Tuesday, May 26th, at Masonic Temple.

Everyone always has a delightful time at these dances as they should be and are well patronized. The chairman of the committee is Mrs. Fred Hofmann and Miss Elizabeth Callahan, Miss Dorothy Anderson, Mrs. Pete Miller, Miss Mary Brasky and Miss Doris Boyer compose her committee.

W. M. S. PICNIC LUNCHEON, CHURCH PARLORS

The Women's Missionary Society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will enjoy a picnic luncheon on Thursday at 1 o'clock in the church parlors.

General picnic rules will be observed. All women of the church are extended a cordial invitation to attend the luncheon and also the regular monthly meeting which follows. Mrs. W. H. Lenox and Mrs. John Florschuetz will have charge of the lesson.

Miss Hazel Wilde To Wed Ralph Young

(Telegraph Special Service) Oregon May 13—Mrs. Mary Wilde announces the engagement of her daughter Hazel to Ralph Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Young of Oregon. The wedding date is set for June 23, and will take place at the bride's home, 204 South Fourth street.

MISSIONARY CIRCLE ST. PAUL'S CHURCH TO MEET

Friday, May 15th, the Missionary Circle of St. Paul's church will hold a picnic supper at the home of Miss Lucille Hank. All members are urged to attend. Those having no means of transportation to the Hank home, meet at the church at 6:30.

DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT WALTON HALL

The Walton baseball team will hold a dance Friday night at the Walton hall, it was announced this morning.

Conference of Presidents, Chairmen to Have May Breakfast

The following from the Chicago Sunday Tribune is of interest here as a number of Dixon women will attend. The article:

One of the pleasant events of each spring is the annual May breakfast of the Conference of Club presidents and Program Chairmen. The party will be held at 12 o'clock Saturday noon in the Grand ballroom of the Stevens hotel.

On this occasion Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa is to receive an award of $500 from the conference for his distinguished service to humanity. Dr. Kagawa is regarded as the outstanding Christian of Asia. He will come to Chicago by airplane from Canada, and will continue to Seattle by plane immediately following the breakfast.

Entertainment at the breakfast is to be provided by Frederick Jaeger, tenor with the Metropolitan Grand Opera company, and by the Ted Shawn men dancers. The breakfast will be attended by the 1,400 members of the conference who are delegates from the 354 affiliated clubs.

Illinois, which made a strong bid for the 1938 triennial convention of the General Federation, unfortunately lost to Kansas City, Mo. The vote taken at a post-conference board meeting gave Chicago only 19 and Kansas City 46.

Enthusiastic approval in Chicago is greeting the General Federation's study and investigation of the pending Patman-Robinson bill. Mrs. Wilbur E. Fribley, president of the Chicago Housewives' league, declared last week that "this action is one of the first forward looking things the federation has done." Upon a recommendation of the public welfare department, approved by the council, Mrs. Roberta Campbell Lawson, General Federation president, wired President Roosevelt from Miami, asking him to appoint an emergency committee to study the Patman-Robinson bill. It was pointed out that this bill, which means that merchants must buy through brokers or wholesale grocers, will mean an estimated increase of approximately $750,000,000 to the consumer on food products alone.

"It's a wholesale grocers' bill," said Mrs. Fribley, who registered her protest in Washington before the General Federation ordered investigation.

The following group of Dixon women expect to attend: Mrs. Wilbur Hart, Mrs. W. G. Murray, Mrs. A. A. Rowland, Mrs. Z. W. Moss, Mrs. E. H. Prince, Mrs. J. Crabtree, Mrs. I. B. Hoefler, Mrs. Florence Plummer White, Mrs. John Devine, Mrs. Gordon Overstreet, Mrs. Eustace E. Shaw, Mrs. George B. Shaw, Mrs. W. H. Coppins, Mrs. A. H. Lancaster, Mrs. E. B. Raymond.

Pressure Cooking School Continues

Aubrey R. Elmore, authority on the subject of pressure cooking, who gave instructions and demonstrations for a group of Dixon women yesterday, will continue his program at the Montgomery Ward store at 2 to 4 and Thursday and Friday.

The lessons will be a continuation of the previous one with new facts presented and demonstrated. An opportunity for anyone who missed the first lesson to ask questions and "catch up" will be provided. Admission is free.

Faster and safer cooking by the pressure cooker method was emphasized by Mr. Geigle, Ward store manager in discussing the school. "The highest temperature which can be obtained in an open vessel is 212 degrees Fahrenheit," he said, "while the pressure cooker can produce 250 degrees Fahrenheit under 15 pounds pressure. It is this excess heat which enables the pressure cooker to cook foods three or four times as fast, to make tender the tougher cuts of meat and to kill dangerous bacteria in the canning of non-acid foods."

The manager also pointed out other advantages such as the saving of fuel due to fast cooking and the use of only one burner; elimination of shrinkage in meats, elimination of smoke, grease, steam and odor, and the cooking of vegetables without water, thus saving important vitamins and mineral salts.

ST. MARY'S P. T. A. IN LAST MEETING

The last meeting for the year of St. Mary's P. T. A. will be held at 7:30 at the school Thursday evening. At this time Dr. Elizabeth Ball, noted Pediatrician, will address the Association.

RECENTLY ARRIVED AT WALDORF-ASTORIA

(Telegraph Special Service) New York City, May 13—Mr. and Mrs. John G. Ralston of Dixon, Ill., are among recent arrivals at the Waldorf-Astoria here.

Blettner-Bokhof Wedding Today

A wedding of great interest to Dixon friends took place in Chicago this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. At this time Henry Bokhof, son of Mrs. C. H. Bokhof of Dixon, and Miss Evelyn Blettner, daughter of Mrs. Edward Frederick Blettner, of 4652 Kenmore avenue, were united in marriage at the Blettner home. Dr. Scott, rector of St. Chrysostom's Episcopal church performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of seventy-five guests, including relatives and friends from Dixon.

The bride was lovely in white satin. The matron of honor was Mrs. John Mallors, III, of Lake Forest. James Hadley of Glencoe was the best man.

Attending the wedding and reception from Dixon were Mrs. C. H. Bokhof, mother of the bridegroom, Miss Grace Steel, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Marloth, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Durkes, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. McNichols, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roe.

Mr. and Mrs. Bokhof are leaving for Cleveland, O., where he has a very fine position. Mr. Bokhof who is a Harvard graduate is a brilliant young man, whose many Dixon friends have followed his career with pride. His bride who has visited in Dixon on several occasions, is a charming young woman.

It's 10-YEAR ECONOMY that counts

There are all kinds of ways to make you think you're saving money. In refrigeration there's only one way that counts. That's actual operating proof. A day isn't enough. Nor ten days. Nor a year. It's ten-year economy that makes a refrigerator a "buy". And that's where super-sealed insulation, all-steel cabinet construction, and precision manufacturing put Westinghouse Golden Jubilee Refrigerators way out in front with users who buy on FACTS. If you're interested in real savings come in and see these facts and figures for yourself.

LET US PROTECT U. S. FROM CRACKPOT ISMS

Whatever else the last few years may have been, they certainly have constituted a great field day for the royal order of crackpots.

It is doubtful if this country ever before saw such a huge number of panaceas and isms being advocated at one time. You can look over the field and take your choice. If you can't find at least one booth that offers the wares you like, you are at liberty to go out and set up one of your own.

Now the spectacle of all these panacea salesmen crawling out from under planks and urging us to save our country by doing this, that, or the other unusual and peculiar thing, is disturbing to a great number of sensible citizens.

But what these sensible citizens usually overlook is the fact that they themselves have cleared the road for the procession of crackpots, by failing to make an effective protest against the ills which the last few years have brought upon us.

This point was admirably brought out recently by Msgr. Michael J. Ready of Washington, assistant general secretary of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, in a speech in Cleveland.

Msgr. Ready's argument was simple and direct. The country, he said, simply cannot and will not put up forever with unemployment, hunger, injustice, and greed. If the ordinary, God-fearing citizen fails to make an effective protest against these things—through his church, his civic groups, his use of the ballot, or whatnot—someone else is going to.

If that someone else turns out to be a bushy-haired individual with an idea that all our ills will be solved if we confiscate all bank accounts larger than $75, the ordinary citizen has only himself to blame.

"In a word," says Msgr. Ready, "we must hunger and thirst after justice to save the soul of society. For, I say boldly, the preservation of Christian society depends upon our courage in making it really Christian."

"Do we wish to take the leadership in this task of reconstruction and perfect a society on the specifications of Christian social teaching, or shall we leave the task to crackpot reformers?"

Stupid and selfish as we often seem to be, the number of intelligent and level-headed citizens, nevertheless, is greater than the number of those who can be taken in by the honeyed words of the panacea salesman.

If some ism or other finally does overwhelm the country, it will be simply because the great mass of the people waited too long before letting their hearts and their consciences drive their brains to the task of putting the national house in order.

VARYING FIGURES SHOW NEED FOR JOB SURVEY

It is encouraging to hear that Commerce Secretary Daniel Roper plans an unemployment census.

This is long overdue. It is too much to expect that definite figures will be available before election. Probably neither party would relish this. But it is high time we found out just where we stand—not only how many are out of work, but what jobs have vanished and what new jobs are arising to replace them.

Throughout the gravest depression the country has ever seen, no one has ever known, within hundreds of thousands, how many persons were unemployed.

Most recent estimate by the American Federation of Labor was 12,184,000. The National Industrial Conference Board's estimates have been near that figure. But now comes the New York Sun and says that all this is ridiculous. It estimates the unemployed in all industries, trades, transportation, and mining, at 3,085,000.

The Sun got its figures through information furnished by 3000 companies. If the present population of the country is about 128,000,000, then about 51,000,000 should be working today, and about 30,000,000 of these would be in the group surveyed.

The Sun found how many really were at work in that group, and figured out the rest in proportion.

The Sun's job is an interesting one, but all such methods are no more than shrewd and lucky approximations. They can be nothing else.

Modern life is complex. There are so many ways of getting a living that don't appear in figures on any recognized big industry.

A widow, left without resources, begins making candy and cake for sale. Is she unemployed? Yes, as far as any industrial tables can show. But she's getting along.

Two boys, just out of high school, develop an ingenious business of washing, clipping, and exercising neighbors' dogs. Are they unemployed? Certainly, as far as any industrial figures go. But they may be making a very fair independent living.

Undoubtedly, in making A. F. of L. estimates, much reliance is placed on union members reported not working at their trades. Yet many such men, skilled at this trade or that, have developed little odd-job and repair work to keep going. Are they unemployed? Certainly, so far as the A. F. of L. is concerned. But they are getting by, and they are not on relief.

The whole thing about unemployment is that nobody knows much about it, even after all these years. General Johnson once proposed a one-day survey of unemployed by registration at polling places, much as draftees were registered during the World War.

Such individual registration of every unemployed man or woman seeking work, with the qualifications of each, would give us a sounder basis for attacking the problem than we have now or ever had.

Before you try to figure out where you are going, it is always a good plan to find out where you are.

THE TINYMITE

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

The blanket bounced wee Duncy high, and Dotty shouted, "Me oh my, I'd like to have a bouncing too. I'll bet it's lots of fun."

"As long as each one hands on tight, the new sport will turn out all right. Why, say, we all can have a turn. Let's try it, one by one."

The old prospector said, "That's fine for you wee tots, but not for mine! I am a bit too heavy and I fear that I would drop."

"I'll help to hold the blanket, though. Now, who will be the first to go? We'll bounce each Tynymite around until we're told to stop."

"I'll try my luck. It was my plan," said Dotty. "Then fair Goldy can be next. But, first, let Duncy down. I think he's had enough."

"You bet I have," said Duncy. "Gee, right on the ground's the place for me." And then they let him down, and laughed to see him pant and puff.

The lad shook the prospector's hand and said, "It certainly was grand of you to send that bird for me. Quite frankly, I was scared."

"The small truck took me miles from here. I never could have walked, I fear. Now, thanks to your real kindness, see how luckily I've fared."

The whole bunch had their bouncing turn, and then the old man said, "I yearn to see you Tynimite find a treasure. I will help you out."

"Now, Scouty, run and get a spade, so real good progress can be made. I'll lead you to a hill where you'll be glad to dig, no doubt."

It wasn't very long until wee Scouty stood atop the hill. "What am I going to find in here?" he shouted, with a smile.

"Aw, don't ask questions. Dig away," he heard the kind prospector say. "If you will just be patient, you will find out, after while."

Cookery News Notes Compiled By Lucile Harris

By Lucile Harris.
SERVE TONGUE IN VARIOUS AND TEMPTING STYLES

Too often homemakers think of tongue as a delicacy to be eaten only when dining at some hotel or restaurant and not as a meat which has numerous possibilities for home use. It may be that many women feel that tongue is difficult to cook or that a whole tongue is more than her small family can eat. As to the cooking, you'll find with your first trial that it is no trick at all. Nor will you find it difficult to use a whole one for the left-over tongue is always in demand for sandwiches, jellied dishes or creamed combinations to be served in patty shells or croutades.

Cook Whole Tongue.

Buy a whole tongue, beef, pork, or lamb, according to the size family you wish to serve. If you buy a fresh tongue, cover it with boiling salted water and allow it to simmer until the skin begins to curl away from the meat. If you want to serve it hot, remove the tongue from the water and take off the skin before serving, but if you are going to use it cold allow it to cool in the broth. Smoked tongue is prepared in the same manner only no salt is added to the cooking water. Many people like to add a few bay-leaves and some whole cloves to the cooking water for added flavor.

Sliced cold tongue or cold tongue sandwiches are great favorites but if you wish a more elaborate way in which to use left-over tongue, there are many recipes from which you may choose. Here are a few choice ones for you to try.

Cold Tongue with Fresh Asparagus.

Cold sliced tongue
2 medium bunches asparagus
2 egg yolks
1/2 cup butter
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Toast triangles
Radishes
Parsley

Wash asparagus and prepare for cooking. Cook until tender in boiling salted water. Drain. Place egg yolks, lemon juice and one-third of butter in top of double boiler. Cook until thick over hot water. Do not allow water to touch bottom of cooking pan. Add second third of butter, allow to thicken and repeat with last third. Arrange tongue on platter with the asparagus and Hollandaise sauce on the toast triangles. Garnish with radishes and parsley.

Pork Tongue Polonaise.

Place two sliced onions in a frying pan with two tablespoons of lard and fry till brown. Add left-over tongue cut into small pieces; one-fourth pound of rice, boiled; two ounces grated cheese; with salt and cayenne pepper. Cook until cheese is melted and serve while hot.

Jellied Tongue in Aspic.

1 beef tongue
2 tablespoons gelatine
4 tablespoons cold water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 cups hot meat stock
Carrot, cooked
Beet, cooked
Parsley
Salt
Pepper
Cover tongue with water and simmer until tender. Let it cool in its own liquor. Run a skewer through the tip of tongue and fleshy part so that it will keep in shape. When cool, remove the skewer, remove the skin and hard parts and season.

Soak gelatine in cold water for five minutes. Add lemon juice, salt and pepper, and hot meat stock. Stir until gelatine is dissolved. Strain through cheesecloth. Place a round pan in ice water, cover the bottom with gelatine mixture, and when firm decorate with cooked carrots, beets cut in fancy shapes, and parsley. Cover with gelatine, adding it carefully so as not to disarrange the vegetables. When this layer is firm, put in tongue and gradually add the remaining mixture. Chill and unmold on garnished platter.

Tongue en Casserole.

1 beef tongue (medium size)
1 cup carrots (diced)
1/2 cup onion
1 cup celery (diced)
2 cups liquor in which tongue was cooked
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper
Place tongue in "casserole" and cover with diced vegetables. Add gravy prepared from liquor, flour, and seasonings. Bake in slow oven (300° F.) or simmer on top of stove for 1 hour. This will serve 10.

Tongue Patties.

2 cups ground tongue
1 egg beaten
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup bread crumbs
1 teaspoon salt
Mix ingredients, handling very lightly to avoid packing. Shape into patties 1/2-inch thick. Brown in a small amount of fat, on top of the stove, or bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 15 minutes. Serves four.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Ready to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks pink.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes three good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

FINAL PLANS ARE MADE FOR COUNTRY CLUB DAY

Princeton.—Final arrangements were made at a recent committee meeting for the grand opening of the season at Bureau Valley Country club, which will take place on Thursday, May 14. Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Highfield are chairmen of the committee in charge of the event.

According to these plans, golf will be enjoyed during the afternoon, and a dinner will be served at 7 o'clock. Pastel shades will be used in the appointments, with flowers the predominating decorations. The aim of this party is to unite the interests of all the club members, whether they are most interested in golf, bridge or dancing.

Several tables of bridge will be in play after the dinner and music will be furnished for dancing by Al Winkel's Royal Entertainers of Pekin.

Announcements of the party were mailed Tuesday, and it is expected that a large number of reservations will be made for the affair.

ALPHA CLASS.

The Alpha class of the English Lutheran church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Clark.

AID DEPARTMENT.

The Aid Department of the Woman's Union of the Baptist church will meet at 2:30 on Wednesday afternoon, May 20, at the home of Mrs. John Exner near Princeton.

DISTRICT ASSEMBLY.

A meeting of the nurses of the county of the fourth district will be held at 2:30 on Thursday afternoon at the Princeton high school. A program will be given during the afternoon.

IN PRINCETON.

Munger Hodgman of Chicago spent Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Maud Hodgman, on Park Ave. East.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO ARRANGE DISTRICT MEET

There was an attendance of 30 members at the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary which was held Monday evening at the Legion rooms, with Mrs. Ed Utthoff and her committee in charge of the meeting.

Plans were discussed for Poppy Day, which will be on Saturday, May 23, and tentative arrangements also were made for the sixteenth district meeting to take place on Tuesday, June 9. At that time the members of the Princeton unit will be hosts to the other units of the district.

The state president and vice president of the organization will attend this district session.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were enjoyed.

VISIT PRINCETON.

Mrs. R. V. Hunt and family of Kewanee spent last Sunday with Mrs. Hunt's mother, Mrs. Mary Jones, on Gosse Blvd.

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Highfield were in Peoria today, where Dr. Highfield attended the state dental convention.

FROM HARVEY.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Simon and son of Harvey spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. James Frasier.

CLUB MEETING.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fingfeld of South Church street will entertain their bridge club Saturday evening at their home. A dinner will be served preceding the bridge game.

HEAD OF "G-MEN" WRITES CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT FOR LOCAL STATISTICS

At a meeting of the city council Monday evening Commissioner Frank Higgins of the police department read a letter from J. Edgar Hoover, head of the federal bureau of investigation at Washington, D. C., thanking the city for its co-operation in submitting statistics on the duties and activities of the local police department. The famous "G-Man" head stated that there are only about 3000 police departments in the country that submit such figures at the present time, and further that crime could be more easily combated if all departments would co-operate.

City Clerk Anderson read a notice from the Illinois Commerce Commission, stating that a hearing would be held at the office of the Commission on May 20, on the question of allowing the Illinois Allied Telephone Company to abolish the "county rate" system, and increase certain other tolls. This precipitated a discussion among the members of the council, which was ended by the mayor remarking that he failed to see why the city should oppose the move inasmuch as the increase did not apply to the ordinary rates, but only to the users of the county rate. The county rate allows the owner to call any of the exchanges in the county except Dupue and Buda upon payment of a fee of 50c per month, without regard to the number of calls. It was recalled that this is the third attempt of the Illinois Allied Company to raise rates. When the company first bought out the local owners at a high price the first attempt was made to increase rates which was hotly contested by the various cities and villages in the county. The commission, after protracted hearings, allowed an increase, although not as large as requested. Six months ago the Company filed another application to increase rates, stating that it could not pay sales tax of 3 per cent to the state and still make a fair return on its investment. The city was represented at the hearing and filed a formal protest. Lately, the commission after investigation refused to let the company increase the 3 per cent, the latest move is regarded as a subterfuge to get the same amount of increase in another way. There is more or less feeling about the matter but what steps will be taken, if any, is still a matter of conjecture.

The report of the superintendent of the Julia Rackley Perry Memorial hospital for the month of April showed a balance of income over operating expenses of $312.76, which was applauded by Commissioner Peterson who presented it. Receipts were: Operating room $347.75; X-ray $209.80; delivery room $67.50; patients' rooms $2-07.17; laboratory $256.75; dressings $103.50; board of special nurses $200.50; telephone $4.15; rent of cots $10; and miscellaneous $4.25. Salaries accounted for the largest expenditure. There is also a group of unpaid accounts amounting to $3,783.80 due and owing. The report was ordered placed on file.

Superintendent of the Cemetery Guy Sharp also presented his annual report, showing his department had a net surplus of $3,710 after paying all expenses for the year. The cemetery receives about $39,000 annually from income on trust funds. This report was also commended and placed on file.

Special cemetery funds were created on behalf of Anna E. Nelson and Henrietta M. Woodruff. Cigarette licenses were granted to Harry E. Burroughs, C. G. Dyke, L. H. Edwards and Carl Kerlein, beer licenses to E. E. Benson, Lenihan and Lundquist and W. Roy Robinson. I. Klass applied for and received a junk dealers license, and H. C. Wickey was issued a plumbers license.

Commissioner Vane announced that May 21 had been designated as "Clean-Up Day" for the city and requested that everyone clean up their premises and have the debris ready for the city refuse collectors on that date.

Commissioner Kullmer reported on the condition of the new boiler, and said that he had taken the matter up with the representatives of the company and the matter would be rectified in the near future.

No action was taken on the positions and salaries ordinance which is expected to be passed at the next meeting of the council on May 18.

THIRD MEETING OF FIRST AID GROUP HELD AT CITY HALL

Firemen from Princeton, Dover, Tiskilwa, Malden, Wyanet and Sheffield turned out Monday night to the third session of a series of First Aid instructions held at the city hall. The series is being put on by State Mine Superintendent McGonigal of LaSalle, who is head of the Mine Rescue Squad. The subject of the recent meeting was "Broken Backs." Mr. McGonigal demonstrated the proper methods of first aid, and transportation for that injury. The next instruction will be held in the near future.

Report Approved

County Judge H. R. Brown approved a report of Al Hartzell, conservator of the estate of Louie Adams on Tuesday in the County Court.

Party at Club

There were five tables of bridge in play Monday evening at Bureau Valley Country club when the regular meeting of the contract club took place following a dinner. High scores for the evening were made by Mrs. Charles Phelps and L. A. Zearing. Mrs. A. C. Best will be chairman of the party next Monday evening at the club.

COMPLAINT FILED FOR SALE OF ADAMS FARM IN BUREAU CIRCUIT COURT

A complaint was filed in the Circuit Court Tuesday afternoon asking that the court appoint a trustee to sell the 120 acre farm belonging to the James Wyman Adams estate. The complaint charges that the land was authorized sold by the will of Mr. Adams and that it is necessary to do so at this time. The case is entitled Al Hartzell vs. James Wyman Adams et al.

sell as conservator of the person and estate of Louie Adams et al. vs. Louie Adams et al. The complaint was filed by Wilson & Wilson, attorneys for the conservator, and it is supposed the sale will be held sometime in August. The farm is well known to residents of Sheffield and vicinity where the late Mr. Adams resided.

J. O. Y. Class

The J. O. Y. class of the Methodist church met Monday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. T. P. Gunning on Park Ave. East, with nearly 50 members present. A covered dish supper was served, followed by a business session.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET HELD AT BAPTIST CHURCH

An unusually enjoyable and successful event of the week was the annual Mother and Daughter banquet which was held Monday evening at the Baptist church, with 100 guests in attendance.

The guests were seated at four small and two large tables, centered with yellow crepe paper streamers and bouquets of white carnations. A color scheme of yellow and white was used throughout the decorations.

Sponsors of the banquet were members of the Junior Woman's class of the church, and the men church members assisted in serving. The banquet was a covered dish affair.

At the conclusion of the dinner a program was given, with Mrs. M. A. Darroch of Utica, Ill., as the principal speaker. Mrs. Darroch's talk was an appreciation of mothers, and she stressed especially a mother's love, companionship and fellowship.

Two musical readings were presented by Miss Betty Mortenson, and the younger girls of the church gave a short play, showing the members of a girls' club away from home speaking of their mothers.

A group of small daughters sang a song, and Helen Swartley and Kenneth Castor sang a Mother's Day duet.

Mrs. Earl Miller gave a toast to the daughters, and her daughter, Miss Vivian Miller, responded with a toast to the mothers.

Group singing was enjoyed during the program.

Meeting Postponed

The bridge club meeting which was to have been held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Eva Greener on Park Ave. East has been postponed until Monday evening of next week.

Attend Meeting

Service at Chapel

Funeral services for Mrs. Abbie Moore were held at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon at Norberg's Funeral Chapel. Mrs. Moore, who was past 80 years of age, was a former resident of Princeton, but for the past years had resided with a son at Pontiac, Ill., where she died at 9 o'clock Saturday evening. Burial was in Oakland cemetery. A service also was held in Pontiac at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

HARDANGER SPRING PARTY HELD AT SKINNER HOME

Members of the Hardanger enjoyed their annual spring luncheon Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Ruth Skinner was hostess to the club at her residence on South Main street. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. C. D. Tedrow, Mrs. C. C. Scott and Mrs. L. Sutton.

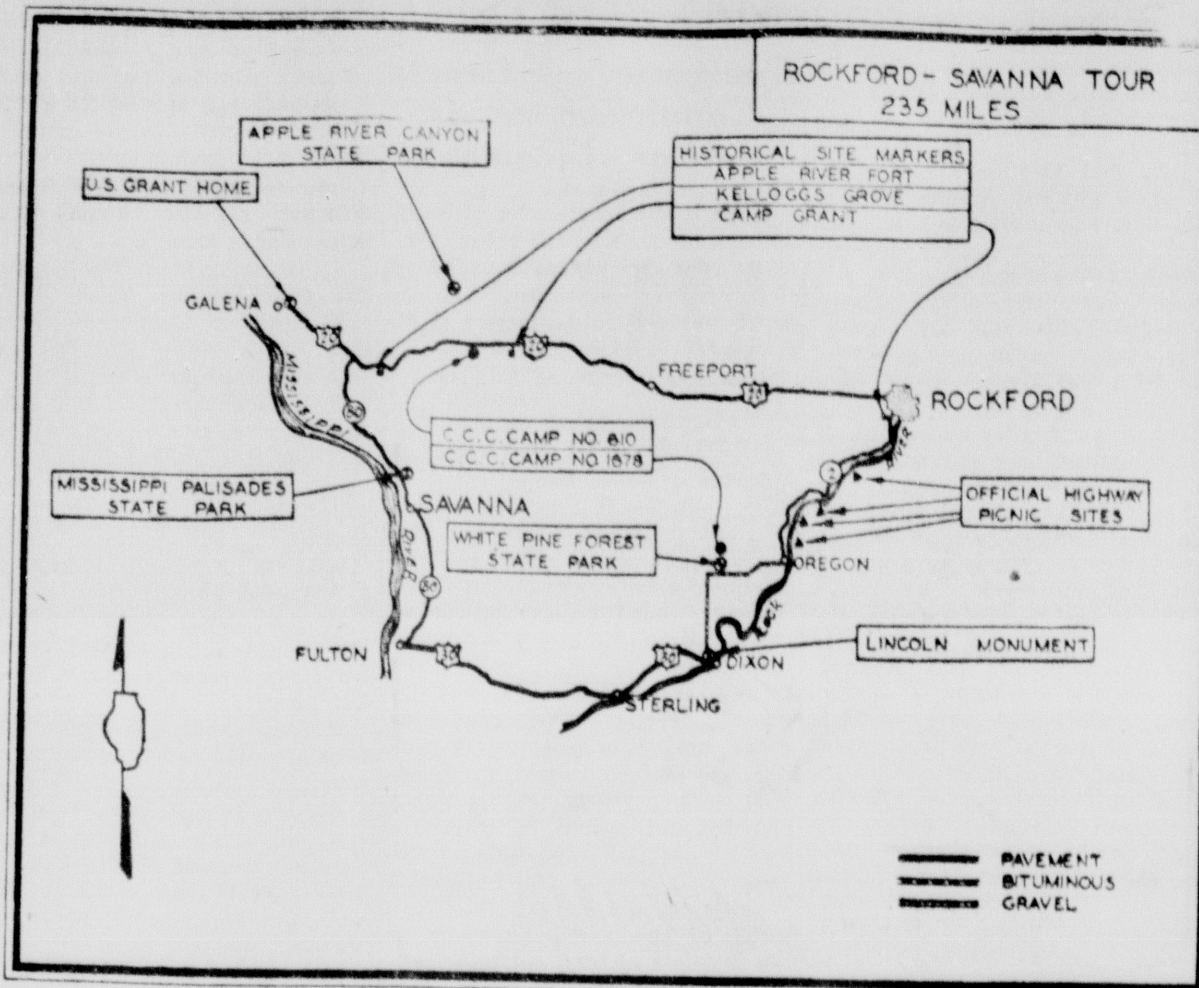

Bouquets of colorful spring flowers decorated the tables at which the guests were seated, and a four-course luncheon was served.

Some of the members sewed during the afternoon, and others played bridge, four tables being in play. Prizes were won by Mrs. Chauncey Horton, Mrs. Ernest Roe, Mrs. Harry Fulle and Mrs. Ferd Horton.

Election of officers was held. Mrs. Harry Burr being chosen president, and Mrs. C. D. Tedrow was elected secretary. A mock initiation ceremony was held for the club's newest member, Mrs. Clarence Olson.

Mrs. Harry Gibbs will entertain

This is Illinois Conservation Week

ROCKFORD-SAVANNA TOUR

(Editor's note.—This is one of a series of tours to scenic and historical spots in Illinois in observation of Illinois' First Conservation Week. These tours, planned by the state of Illinois, are for the purpose of acquainting Illinois citizens with the scenic, historical and recreational areas within their own state.)

While much of the tour east of Freeport is over pleasing topography that is greatly enhanced by seasonal attractions, it is that part of U. S. 20 that runs west of Freeport that gives the route its reputation as being one of the most beautiful in the state.

Two historical site markers of interest to Illinois citizens, and to a certain extent to the Midwest, are those of Kellogg's Grove and Apple River Port. Kellogg's Grove marker is found along the south side of the highway about five miles west of the junction with ILL. 73. Apple River Port marker is also along the south side of the highway just before entering the village of Elizabeth.

In the tours that are suggested for Conservation Week special note is made of the things that are of particular interest aside from those which nature gives us in the spring. The official state highway historical site markers and the newly developed official state highway picnic areas are among those things of particular interest that are to be found on the accompanying tour maps as well as on the new 1936 official state highway map that is free for the asking at most places where maps are distributed or at the different state offices.

If one has an official state highway map on which the historical site markers are indicated as well as the picnic sites or have lunch with the convenience of a picnic table. The historical sites along the group at its next meeting, a one o'clock luncheon to be held on Tuesday, May 26, at her home on South Pleasant street.

Lawrence Parr, 17, was arrested recently by Officer M. A. Fredrickson on the charge of stealing a rifle and revolver from Selby Johnson. This was his second offense, as last June he pleaded guilty to a charge of petty larceny in the county court and was put on probation. On Tuesday he was sent to Vandalia for a year by Judge H. R. Brown.

Just before entering ILL. 80 from the return trip out of Galena there is an official state highway picnic area on Terrapin Ridge along the north side of the road. Look for this on the way to Galena so as not to miss it on the way east.

Going southward on ILL. 80 there is another opportunity to get out of the car at Mississippi Palisades State Park. This is rather a new park that has been improved by the CCC shelters, comfort stations, and picnic grounds have been built for the public convenience. It is at this park that the tourist will be able to get the only good look at the Mississippi river while on this tour. The name of the park warns one that steep cliffs overlooking the river must have been preserved for some good reason when this area became a state park. A marked trail leads to the top from where it is possible to see many miles over the valley and on to Iowa.

At Dixon there is the Lincoln monument located just west of the route and along the north side of the river. This was erected on the site of the old Dixon Block House which is the site of Lincoln's army days as well.

Along the Rock river there are more official highway picnic areas per mile than on any other highway in the state. Near Grand Detour is a historical site marker titled "The First Steel Plow" with a brief description of the history that such an advent created.

At White Pines state park there has been preserved one of the few real stands of real white pine in the state. This is a beautiful park of 315 acres where the public conveniences have been nicely arranged in the natural setting by a CCC camp that is continuing to concentrate the improvements.

If the tourist has not seen a CCC camp it is most highly recommended that he visit these camps. This camp along with others throughout the state has extended a cordial invitation to the public to visit them during Conservation Week. Here may be seen how the problems pertaining to park development or soil conservation are best met. Where the camps are located at parks the problem is to provide for the public necessities without encroaching upon the natural features. Many of the CCC camps are located at places where it is necessary to do work in soil conservation. The CCC barracks in either location that will be seen are typical of thousands of others throughout the country.

Leaving the park the same improved road is followed directly eastward for ten miles to Oregon where the tour turns north to the left at ILL. 2. For 12 miles along the west bank of the Rock river ILL. 2 takes the tour to Byron. In this ten miles is seen one of the most noted of Illinois beauty spots. Just north of Oregon is seen, on the east bluff, the famous Indian "Blackhawk" as rendered by Lorado Taft in concrete. The Indian is about 40 feet tall and thoroughly impresses the tourist that the Indians did their part to make it hard for the white man to conquer the wilderness of his day.

The route follows the west riverbank down the river. The picnic sites abound and it is suggested that in order for the driver to see up the river as easily as the passenger that the tour be delayed at one of the picnic sites. It will be well worth while to figure on this delay in planning the route the night before because it will be irresistible when encountered.

TWO CAMPAIGN COMMITTEES TO DIRECT DRIVE

Democratic Managers Seem to be Hopelessly Split

Springfield, Ill., May 13.—(AP)—Despite the split of the Democratic state central committee and the establishment of an independent downstate campaign organization, Gov. H. Horner's forces said today they planned to leave the Chicago campaign in the hands of the Kelly-Nash faction.

Their decision was made known last night together with a statement by the governor assailing the bosses who controlled the futile action of the state central committee.

Downstate, the Horner campaign will be under the direction of Harry B. Hershey of Taylorville, selected yesterday by fifteen committeemen who bolted the organization meeting of the central committee, which, under control of the Kelly-Nash forces, elected Bruce A. C. Bell of Belleville, chairman.

In a statement explaining their position, the downstaters said they "insist that the downstate campaign shall be managed by men who are legally elected by the down state voters."

"They are willing that the Democratic campaign in Cook county should be managed by the men who are qualified to speak for the Cook county voters, but they insist that Cook county should not be permitted to select the downstate campaign manager."

Details Supplied.

Daniel Sullivan of Chicago, the governor's administrative auditor, who lost his job as committee secretary in the new flare of factional comity, supplied further details of the Horner campaign plans.

He said that the governor would name a statewide manager also, but declined to comment on possible candidates. Two Horner leaders immediately suggested to him were F. Lynden Smith of Pontiac, who was the downstate primary campaign chief, and James M. Slattery of Chicago, who served in a similar post for the governor in Cook county.

Sullivan said Smith's work in the November campaign probably would not be as a downstate manager since Hershey had been accepted for that position. But neither would he say Smith would get the statewide job. Concerning Slattery, Sullivan indicated there was little chance of his being named, pointing out "Slattery is now chairman of the commerce commission, a big job."

Attacks Campbell.

Most of the governor's statement was directed against Campbell. Speaking of his election as chairman by the Chicagoans, Horner said:

"By a deal this group has selected as chairman of the Democratic state central committee a man who himself is a member of the committee only because his opponent was unlawfully thrown off the ticket."

He referred to the disqualification before the primary of Walter Nesbit of Belleville as an opponent of Campbell because his petitions were held improper by the state certifying board.

Declaring the Chicagoans "have flouted the will of the Democratic primary voters of Illinois," the governor said "we shall fight their efforts to control the party in defiance of the people's will as expressed in the April 14 primary."

"I regret that the bosses who today controlled the futile action of the state central committee were so shortsighted," he added.

PLAN G. O. P. CONVENTION.

Chicago, May 13.—(AP)—The east for the Illinois Republican state convention in Peoria May 22, authoritative sources said today, includes these starting parts:

Temporary chairman—Rep. Everett M. Dirksen, 40-year-old Peoria, Ill., congressman, who was elected in 1932 despite the Democratic landslide and won again in 1934 with a comfortable 27,000 vote advantage.

Keynote—A two-man team with C. Wayland Brooks, the party's nominee for governor, discussing the state issues and former Senator Otis F. Glenn, nominated for the senate, sounding the party's pitch on national affairs.

Party insiders said these assignments were definite. The division of labor breaks precedent in that the temporary chairman will not be the keynote.

One Role to Be Filled.

It leaves one of the stellar roles to be filled. That is the role of permanent chairman.

Some of the Republican leaders said there was a strong probability that this would go to someone in the campaign camp of former Governor Len Small of Kankakee, Brooks' strongest rival in the primary, as a move to cement party unity.

If this is done, the man regarded as most likely to receive the honor was Werner Schroeder, Chicago attorney who was the former governor's campaign manager. Assigning a Chicagoan after giving temporary chairmanship to Dirksen would follow the custom of dividing honors between Chicago and the downstate.

Fuehrer Honors One-Time Foe

Though he smashed Hitler's 1923 Munich "Beer Hall Putsch," Maj.-Gen. Hans von Seeckt, a perfect example of the old-time German war lord, was honored on his 70th birthday by Der Fuehrer. Bemedalled, monocled, and straight as a ramrod, the old warrior, shown above on his anniversary, was made honorary commander of the 67th Infantry Regiment, named after him.

LEE CENTER NEWS

By Mrs. W. S. Frost

Lee Center—While practicing the broad jump on the school athletic field with Coach Herbert Blodgett, Friday afternoon Bill Blackwell fell and broke a bone between the ankle and knee of his right leg. A physician reduced the fracture and he is making a satisfactory recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Pomeroy moved some of their household goods to the E. A. Pomeroy home and plan to leave for Los Angeles, Calif., the middle of the week.

Berthold Bruce has resigned his position at Mundelein and will seek employment near here. His wife who has been so ill is now improving daily.

Mrs. F. L. John and Mrs. Jack Brasel attended a device recital in Mt. Morris Saturday night in which Rita Mae John took part in a Humpty Dumpty costume in a dance, "Once upon a time." The teacher is Anna Marie Schrader.

Gordon Stebbins spent last week with his grandmother, Mrs. Jacobson in Rockford.

Alta Grace Carlson returned on Saturday from Detroit where she has been with her sister, Mrs. Dick Miller who is recovering from a recent operation.

Glen Eisenberg of Plano was calling on friends here Sunday.

In crossing the road, Mrs. Mary M. Richardson stumbled over a wire, protruding from the ground, injuring her wrist and side quite seriously.

R. E. Blystone of Peoria was in town last week.

The Alumni association has been fortunate enough to receive Rev. C. E. Frazier of Plainfield and Prof. P. D. Downey of Grafton, both well known here, as speakers for the annual banquet to be given on Saturday evening, June 6. Lindsey Jeanblanc of the Illinois university will act as toastmaster. Dancing and card playing will be held in the new Community high school gymnasium.

Mrs. Mary Riley is making her home with her son Harry the greater part of the time. Her health is somewhat improved and she is always glad to see her friends.

Steve and Elsie Mortenson, twins, celebrated their 18th birthday on Sunday by entertaining a number of young friends with a 6 o'clock chicken dinner followed by motorizing to Mendota to the dance. Those in attendance besides the young host and hostess were Avon Cox, Harry Kalsted, Harold Donnelly, John Mortenson, Grace Cox, Shirley Richards, Caroline Parker and Elizabeth Combar.

DAILY HEALTH

AGGRESSIVENESS.

It is an innate characteristic of all living substance (and also of non-living but organized matter) to resist inimical and destructive forces which threaten its integrity. The more highly organized the form of the living substance the more manifold this fight to retain its integrity.

In the human being aggression is evident in many forms. Initially it is manifested as a primitive defense of its physical integrity. Later aggression is also shown in man's drive for growth and development.

Man's aggressiveness toward all other animal forms about him is too potent to require elaboration. But man's aggressiveness toward the other members of the human family, though potent, is not so widely understood, for it is not always manifested directly. It more commonly assumes inverted and devious forms of expression.

This is the result of education and the demands of organized society. The infant, for example, is a bundle of aggression. It tolerates few restraints and is imperiously demanding nurture, comfort and attention. As it grows older, the child is taught to subdue its aggressiveness. But this lesson is not always well learned. Instead of being sublimated, or constructively converted, the aggressiveness usually is merely repressed, and because of the repression reappears insidiously and in masked forms.

Subjective fears, such as fear of the dark, are really projections of inner aggressions. The individual senses within himself impulses which he fears, but he projects his fears outward and transfers them to outer objects or conditions.

Frequently the repressed aggression shows itself in the individual attributing aggression to others. This form of projection allows him to maintain that his own nature is pacific and to justify whatever aggression is evident in him as a necessary defense against the external threat.

THOMPSON SEES STREET REPAIRS ARE NECESSARY

Energetic Streets Commissioner Is After Cleanup

(This is the fourth of a series of articles by Dixon high school students who recently participated in the city government project sponsored annually by the senior civics classes.)

BY WILLIAM C. THOMPSON

Commissioner of Streets.

During the short time which I held the office of Commissioner of Street and Alleys I secured a great deal of practical knowledge and also a great variety of much needed experience.

As I carried on my survey of conditions in the city I discovered that they were much worse than I had ever noticed before. Of course, our city is in as good condition as most of the cities of similar size and population, nevertheless, there are many faults which can and should be corrected. For instance, the condition in the alleys and also in the residential districts is unbelievable. The majority of the alleys, especially in the business district, are piled sky-high with all sorts of trash. The business men should be public-spirited enough not to put all the responsibility upon the shoulders of the Commissioner of Streets and Alleys. Help clean up the city by keeping your own place of business clean, should be their slogan. Also, in every corner of town in the residential district there are a few careless people who forget and leave their front and back yards cluttered up with refuse. Though many of the people seemed to have forgotten it, there is an ordinance fixing a fine of $200 for the throwing of refuse in or in front of public streets. In a city of this size there shouldn't need to be anything said about this but I am in favor of enforcing this ordinance to the fullest extent in order to keep some of our citizens wide awake as to the conditions around their own homes or places of business. Let's all cooperate with the city council and have every week be a clean-up week in Dixon.

I encourage the citizens to take a greater interest in the many problems which face our Honorable Mayor and Councilmen. There are a great many people who are ready and willing to bring up arguments and crab about everything that the governing body of the city of Dixon try to do, yet they are too busy to go to council meetings and be of any help instead of a hindrance. I know the streets and alleys are in terrible condition and that the Galena avenue bridge is in bad need of repair. I also know that there is not enough money to begin to complete all repairs necessary, but if the citizens will cooperate with the city officials we will have a better and happier city in which to live.

ROCHELLE NEWS

By Arthur T. Guest

Rochelle. Rochelle veterans of the World War who filed their applications for adjusted compensation certificate proceeds should receive their government bonds on Monday, June 15, 1936, according to Vice-president Berger of the 13th District, American Legion, of Amboy. Mr. Berger addressed Rochelle Post 403 at their regular meeting held in the Legion hall, Monday evening, and quoted Lester Benson, service officer of the American Legion, stationed at Veterans Administration, Hines, Ill., as stating that applications totaling $55,000 were on file and approved and that the bonds were in the Federal Reserve bank, Chicago, in readiness for mailing on June 14, 1936.

The speaker, who was unanimously endorsed by the post for district commander, stated that the 13th district now has 1963 paid up members for 1936 as of May 10, 1936 exceeding the quota assigned to the district of 1,534 and lacking only 57 members of the quota. District Commander Henry Kolb, of Tampico set for himself of 2,000. The 13th district has led the state in membership since February 2nd and are now 8 per cent ahead of their nearest contender. There are 35 posts in the district and of this number 27 have reached or exceeded their quotas and two posts have exceeded their high years. Rochelle post has exceeded their quota of 135, having 137 members paid up for 1936. Last year the 13th district was in third place losing out in the final day of the contest after leading for sometime. If the district remains in first place the 13th district will head the parade at the state convention to be held in Danville in August and it is hoped that the Sons of Veterans Drum & Bugle Corps of Rochelle will be in the lead.

School awards have been ordered and this year all boys winning the Legion School Award are offered Military Academy Scholarships by Roosevelt Military School at Aledo, Ill., L. S. Stafford, superintendent, and Onarga Military School, Onarga, Ill., Major L. N. Bittinger, Superintendent. The scholarships are for $200 per year.

Lytle Tuttle, of Amboy, chairman of Boy Scout activities for department of Illinois American Legion, was also present at the meeting and spoke of the forming of a speakers bureau.

H. R. Lissack, who with Dr. C. E. Motlomb has charge of the Sons of Veterans unit reported that the unit has 40 members and an average attendance at meeting of 32. The boys will go in for the junior baseball program this summer.

Commander W. F. Vierke of the Sons of Veterans drum and bugle corps reported the booking of the Pan American Show carnival, which will be held in Rochelle the first week in June. This is one of the largest carnivals on the road and is clean and wholesome throughout. No gambling devices are permitted and there are no shows that offer anything but the best of wholesome entertainment. The rides are of the very best and all concessions and shows are carefully supervised. Twenty-three Legionnaires will take tickets and check the concessions, rides and attractions. An admission fee of 5c is charged to enter the carnival grounds and the carnival comes to Rochelle with a flat guarantee so that the Post is assured of an attractive proposition and will realize sufficient funds to equip the Sons of Veterans drum and bugle corps for the state convention at Danville.

Harold Palmer, Americanism chairman, heads the committee who will have charge of the annual Memorial Day. Mr. Palmer is given authority to pick his own committee.

The annual Memorial Sunday service for all veteran organizations which rotates among the churches will be held in the Methodist church this year on Sunday, May 24th. All patriotic organizations are invited to participate. Rochelle Post voted at Monday night's meeting to hold the same type of program as held last year. The program will be held in the afternoon at Memorial Park. C. A. Anderson and C. E. Kepner were appointed a committee to see that the field piece at Lawndale cemetery was given a coat of paint in readiness for the Memorial Day service. Members are asked to wear Legion caps, a white shirt, and black bow tie, with dark trousers. Every veteran is asked to participate regardless as to whether they have a Legion cap or not. The post voted to employ J. Carl Rhoads, steward of the post, as janitor at a fixed salary to see that the club rooms are always presentable.

Rochelle Post will also co-operate with the Rochelle Business Men's Association in plans for the Flag Township centennial and will take charge of Veterans Day when it is planned to hold a drum corps competition, and other interesting events. The state commander will be invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Killmer and Miss Evelyn Tinnow of Broadhead, Wis., visited Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Killmer. They had spent Mother's Day in Dixon with relatives.

George and Norm Sorenson of Waukegan spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Reid.

Mrs. Frank Mynard attended the Mother's Day luncheon Wednesday at the Lee Center church.

Mrs. L. B. Reid and daughters, Mrs. Elmer Underhill and Miss Edna Belle attended a Mother's-Daughter's banquet Saturday night at the M. E. church at Amboy.

Mary Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan fell from her pony Friday and broke her arm in two places.

Mrs. Leroy June spent Thursday in Sterling attending the Woman's club convention held in that city on Thursday and Friday.

Dussell and Earl Meurer entertained the Luther League of Amboy at their home Thursday evening. After a business meeting, lunch was served and games enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles June, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy June and Mrs. Jennie Jamison spent Mother's Day in Sterling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Jamison. Mrs. Jennie Jamison remained for a visit at the home of her son.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Reid and daughter Edna Belle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Underhill and two daughters of Dixon and Mr. and Mrs. James Reid and family of Franklin Grove were dinner guests Mother's Day at the home of Mrs. Flora Reid of Amboy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buchanan and two sons, Morris and Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hillson and family, Mrs. Anna Bothe, Clarence Bothe and family, Frank Fassler and family and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fassler, Leslie Pankhurst and family, Arthur Hullah and family, Frank Atkinson and family were among the ones that attended the school picnic at Lowell park Sunday. A nice dinner was served at noon after which games and races were enjoyed. Miss Lillian Schick of South Dixon will again teach our school next year.

Miss Edna Belle Reid was one of ten contestants from the Amboy high school to enter a commercial contest at Mt. Morris Saturday, she being the only one to enter in typing the other being in shorthand and bookkeeping. She placed second in typing with an average of 51 words a minute and the student placing first was from Lena with an average of 52 words. Miss Reid won second at Princeton a few days ago. She is to be congratulated on her ability in typing.

PAUPER TAX TO BE COMPULSORY UNDER NEW LAW

Gov. Horner Permits Enactment Without His Signature

Springfield, Ill., May 13.—(AP)—The $4,500,000 appropriation needed to keep the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission operating until July 1 today awaited Gov. Horner's promised signature.

Relief developments at the state house included:

1. The house passed and sent to the governor the compromise appropriation of $4,500,000 to the IERC for May and June.
2. It killed the Billman bills to create 102 new taxing units, co-extensive with the counties, to levy taxes and issue bonds for relief.
3. Horner permitted the last of the Hickman-Lantz-Finn bills to become a law without his signature. These bills provide that Chicago and other local governments cannot get state funds for the unemployed unless they levy a 50-cent property tax.
4. Amendments to make the old age pension act conform with federal standards, as a means of getting the state maximum of $15 monthly matched from Washington, were introduced in the house.

No Opposition

The vote was 110 to 0 when the house last night sent to the governor the $4,500,000 appropriation, to which all factions agreed so that the IERC could continue operations until July 1, the date set for the transfer of relief responsibilities and administration to the local governments under the Hickman-Lantz-Finn bills.

But first the Billman plan for county relief districts was killed, 84 to 25, on a motion to strike the enacting clause. Rep. B. S. Adamowski of Chicago made the motion. Chicago Democrats and most of the Republicans united in the overwhelming death of the bills, endorsed by Horner, to permit taxes and bonds by new governmental units.

As the key bill in the Hickman-Lantz-Finn series became a law without executive approval, Horner said:

"It is contended by proponents of this series of bills returning the burden of poor relief in part to the local communities is adequate to prevent distress. I sincerely hope so. Despite the questionable features of senate bill 10, I would not be justified in vetoing it."

The governor previously signed the other bills authorizing Chicago, the Cook county suburban townships, the downstate townships and commission counties to levy pauper taxes. The final bill makes the 30-cent levy mandatory if the local governments are to get sales tax funds for relief after September 30.

Horner vetoed similar bills by Sen. Simon H. Lantz, Congerville Republican, in 1933.

Tax Compulsory

After July 1, the plan is to have the IERC allocate sales tax funds to the local governments. Chicagoans protested against the compulsory tax.

The federal amendments to the old age pension plan were placed before the second session on relief as the governor sent to both houses the letter from John G. Winant, chairman of the social security board, refusing aid from Washington unless the state has supervision.

Bills eliminating the complete home rule feature were introduced in the house, along with others to enable the state to get federal aid for blind and mother's pensions.

OLD TIMERS AS GOOD AS EVER IN BIG LOOPS

Showing Form of Rookies, Pitch and Bat Well

Chicago, May 13.—(AP)—Youth may be served eventually, but a few "old timers" in the American league are busy proving they still can teach the youngsters a trick or two.

Young, ambitious pitchers in the junior circuit can take lessons from that surprising veteran of the Boston Red Sox, Bob (Lefty) Grove. After a great comeback last season, the old fireball star's ability to do as well this year was a matter of doubt in many sectors, but with the season a month old "Lefty" has a record of five wins against the one loss and leads the circuit in strikeouts, with 26.

Vic Sorrell of the Detroit Tigers is another twirler "ancient" making things hum. The "baby doll," as Vic is known among his mates, appeared in only 12 games last season, winning four and losing three. Yesterday he beat Boston's powerhouse 5-0, granting only three hits, to annex his third win of the year against one loss.

George Blacholder of the Cleveland Indians also has been around a long time but he's unbeaten to date and has three games on the right side of his pitching ledger to lead the circuit.

Goose Hits 348 Clip.
Leon (Goose) Goslin, whose $50,000 single ended the World Series last fall, has been in the league since 1921 but the way he's hitting—at a .348 clip—makes him look like an ambitious rookie determined to stick in his first year up. The "gander from Salem" got two hits in four trips yesterday, one of them a homer.

Manager Jimmy Dykes of the Chicago White Sox is supposed to be creaking near the pipe and slippers age but he's pounding the ball at a .328 average. Another Sox veteran, "Mule" Haas, is hitting just under the .300 mark and is tied for second place among the leading doubles hitters with nine.

Lou Gehrig may not be classed strictly an "old timer," still he signed with the Yankees just 12 years ago. After a bad year in 1915 Louis "hot" once more and boasts a .387 mark at the plate. Al Simmons of the Tigers will be 33 next week and is still a good ball player, while Heinie Manush, who is 34, is holding his job in the Boston outfield.

Fist Fight Adds to Feud Between Giants, Dodgers

New York, May 13.—(AP)—Obviously jealous of its reputation as baseball's rough-house league, the National today held an advantage of two downright brawls and two bitter quarrels to one minor disagreement for the American.

The Casey Stengel-Leo Durocher battle of yesterday was the National's latest sideshow and gave every indication that the remaining two games of the series between the Dodgers and the Cardinals might even add to the National League's advantage.

Durocher was nursing a split lip today while Flatbush howled the praises of its warrior manager, Casey Stengel. Casey was saying very little about the brawl under the stands yesterday, however.

He did say that Leo was mistaken in thinking that he was hit by a bat, "it was a right, just a plain right," Casey insisted.

Flatbush, storm center of the league, has already called out special police to keep the peace this season. This was necessitated by the fight between Van Lingle Mungo, the Brooklyn pitcher, and Dick Bartell, Giants' shortstop. The fight took place at the Polo Grounds, but the teams shortly moved over to Flatbush, where they insist on their prerogative of nursing old feuds.

There was every indication also that the old winter squabble between Virgil Davis, the Cards' catcher, and the eminent Dizzy Dean has not been solved, as the principals both insist.

Davis, admittedly one of the finest catchers in the league, was not behind the bat yesterday when the Cards opened the campaign in the east. Instead, a rookie, Brusie Ogradowski caught Dean, and there are some who believe that even Dizzy needs the help of a good experienced catcher.

The other feud in the National involves Paul Derringer, ace Cincinnati pitcher, and Larry MacPhail, the fiery general manager of the Reds. Originally it was announced that Derringer had been indefinitely suspended by Charley Dresen, manager of the Reds, for failing to slide into home.

Later, Dresen was quoted as saying that he had nothing to do with the suspension. Responsibility for that, he said, belonged to MacPhail.

Meanwhile, the American League goes peacefully along, the only threat being one timid advance by Pitcher Johnny Allen at Del Baker, coach of the Detroit Tigers, whereupon Cyril C. Slapnicka, general manager of the Indians, appealed to President Harbridge that the boys were "constantly heckling" his Johnny.

SPECULATE ON BOLD VENTURE IN PREAKNESS

Race Will Test His Right To Triumph At Louisville

Baltimore, May 13.—(AP)—Interest in the Saturday's running of the Preakness at Pimlico mounted today in anticipation of the arrival of Morton L. Schwartz's Bold Venture—1936 Kentucky Derby winner.

As the three-year olds already on the lot tuned up for the $25,000 event, a survey revealed a probable field of 16, depending upon the weather. Stable-talk, for the most part, centered on whether Bold Venture can become the fifth horse in history to win both Derby and Preakness.

The winner of the Kentucky classic has been working out in New York for Saturday's engagement, and apparently needed only an outing to get the feel of the local track.

Trainer Jim Fitzsimmons was considering sending three horses to the post in an effort to overcome the Derby ruler's threat, Granville, which lost his rider in the Churchill Downs appearance, Teufel and Snark were the nominees.

Bradley Entry Ready
E. R. Bradley, the one-two specialist, will have an entry ready with Joe Renick up on Bow and Arrow and Lester Balaski riding Bien Joli. Memory Book and Brush Hook will be the Green-tree stable entry.

Bomar stable's Grand Slam has plenty of backers rooting for him to show up the scoffers who belittled his offering in the Derby. Jimmy Bryson, who didn't get his chance to ride then, will be up on the Bomar horse Saturday.

Delphinium, from Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane's Brookmeade stable string—which sent Cavalcade and High Quest here for the Preakness two years back—and Mrs. Silas B. Mason's He Did, winner of the Santa Anita Derby, will be very much in the running for the win money.

BROWNS, JINX TO YANK NINE, WIN 7-0 TILT

Break Losing Orgy of 13 Defeats in a Row Tuesday

By ANDY CLARKE

Associated Press Sports Writer
The New York Yankees, leading the American league race, are wondering whether the St. Louis Browns again are going to throw a monkey wrench into the machinery.

The Browns were the bane of the Yankees last year, turning very savage when the McCarthy-men were in the opposite dugout and then becoming just as docile when the Tigers happened to be the foe. They were a big help in Detroit's march to the flag.

The Browns, with 13 straight defeats behind them, picked on the Yankees yesterday to break their losing streak, with a 7-0 shutout. The Red Sox also were shut out, 5-0, by the Tigers and so the Yankees remained in the van of the race but Manager Joe McCarthy hoped the Browns weren't going to renew an old habit.

Al Thomas, starting his first game, allowed but four hits as he hogtied the Yankee batsmen. Pat Malone gave up six hits and six runs in the first two innings before being relieved by Bump Hadley.

Sorrell Gives 3 Hits

Vic Sorrell turned in the best pitching performance of the day when he let the Red Sox down with three hits. Jimmie Fox got the first off him in the sixth inning. The Tigers collected eight hits, one of them a homer by Goose Goslin.

Dizzy Dean was shelled with 13 hits as the Dodgers beat the Cardinals 5-2 with Ed Brandt winning his first game of the season. Brandt held the Cards to four hits in eight innings. The game was marked by bickering between Manager Casey Stengel of the Dodgers and Leo Durocher to settle their differences. Durocher said Casey hit him with a bat but Stengel insisted that it merely was his fist. Frankie Frisch broke up the battle.

For the second day in a row, the Giants won a ball game in the ninth inning; Travis Jackson hitting a clean single to score Mel Ott for a 5-4 win. Ott, the home run hero of Monday's game, singled and stole second to lay the groundwork for Jackson's winning poke. Clyde Castleman and Hank Lieber each hit a homer with one on for the Giants.

Reds Drub Phillies

The Cincinnati Reds sent the Phillies into the National league cellar when they beat them 6-4. Lew Riggs, Reds third sacker, sent home the winning runs as he singled with the bases loaded and two out in the seventh.

Darkness and an approaching thunder storm halted the Bees-Pirates game with the score 6-all in the tenth inning. It was a free-hitting contest in which 24 hits were made off seven pitchers, four of whom worked for the Bees.

Two other games were called on account of rain. Washington held Detroit to a 3-0 lead over the White Sox when the rain came down in the third inning and the game between the Athletics and the Cleveland Indians was called in the second with the Indians in the lead 2-1.

Stable Owner Fined $100 For Provoking Fight; Aurora Track

Chicago, May 13.—(AP)—Stewards at the Aurora track imposed a $100 fine yesterday on Butsy Hernandez of New Orleans for using impetuous language and provoking a fight with George Swain, an employee of the secretary's office.

Hernandez, owner of one of the largest stables at the track, said "it was purely a personal matter and had nothing to do with racing." The altercation took place near the paddock.

Here and There In Sports World

By EDDIE BRIEZE

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
New York, May 13.—(AP)—Hate to spoil a good story, but Joe DiMaggio is no $75,000 beauty. He cost the Yankees just $25,000 cash plus ball players supposed to be worth $15,000 more. Fashion hint: Lefty O'Doul, known far and wide as "the man in the green suit," has shifted to a dazzling plaid. Also, James J. Johnston has parked his spats for the summer. Since inaugurating the "daily double" feature the Rockingham Park race track has had to employ 50 additional clerks.

TRAPSHOOTING INTEREST HIGH

Rebirth of Interest Particularly in Illinois Shown

Vandalia, Ohio, May 13.—This seems to be a comeback year not only for the individuals of sport, but also for sport as a whole. And now statistics compiled at the national headquarters of the Amateur Trapshooting Association here at Vandalia Field, indicate that the trapshooting game is on the way to one of its greatest years in history.

Illinois, in particular, seems to have had a rebirth of interest in the clay-pigeon game. In what has come to be known as the good old days, Chicago was the trapshooting capital of the world. Nine Grand American championships were held in the Windy City between 1907 and 1923. Then in 1924, the shooters built their permanent home here, and since then, all the Grand Americans have been held over the Vandalia traps. They call the "Grand," the world series of trapshooting.

Attendance Fell Off
With the passing of the Grand American from Chicago attendance began to drop off at Illinois shoots, which once attracted the greatest scattergun artists in America. Last year, attendance began to pick up again. A newspaper-sponsored tournament attracted more than 1000 shooters. Gun clubs became more active than ever before. The new boom in Illinois trapshooting was under way.

Early in April, the old-time Chicago Handicap, registered with the Amateur Trapshooting Association, was renewed. There was a bumper attendance and good scores. It reminded the old-timers of the good old days. Actually, there was a 60 per cent increase in the number of shooters.

Now, shooters in Illinois have two important events to point for before the Grand American at Vandalia field in August. The Illinois state shoot is scheduled at Rockford June 26, 27 and 28. Then a month later on July 24, 25 and 26, the Central Zone championship will be held at Lincoln Park, Chicago. This tournament attracts crack shots from the entire midwest.

Other registered Illinois shoots this month are Paxton Gun Club, Elgin Trap and Gun Club, and Springfield Gun Club—all on May 17. It looks like the business of "clay-busting" is in for one of its greatest years.

TRACK CLASSIC AT URBANA WILL BE HARD FOUGHT

Kankakee Dash Man Ran 100 Yards in 9.9 at District

Urbana, Ill., May 13.—(AP)—finely trained field of star performers from high schools throughout the state may send records toppling in several events here Friday and Saturday when the state's prep track and field championship is decided at the University of Illinois stadium.

Brilliant performances in both track and field events in the district qualifying meets last Saturday indicate that this year's meet will be keenly contested. Rockford high is the defending titlist. Jack Emigh of Kankakee will be a marked man in the sprint events. He stepped the century in 9.9 seconds last Saturday and was home first in the 220-yard dash in the time of 22 flat. He is expected to receive stiff competition, however, from G. Williams of Evanston and Nelson of Hillsdale, among others.

Quarter-Mile Difficult.
The quarter-mile is expected to be hard fought, with Cowan of New Trier high, Phil Darmstadt of York, Conoley of New Trier and Henry Downs of Shelbyville likely looking entries. In the mile another Shelbyville star, Irvin Tubbs, stepped the distance in 4:35.5 and will have plenty of backers to win next Saturday.

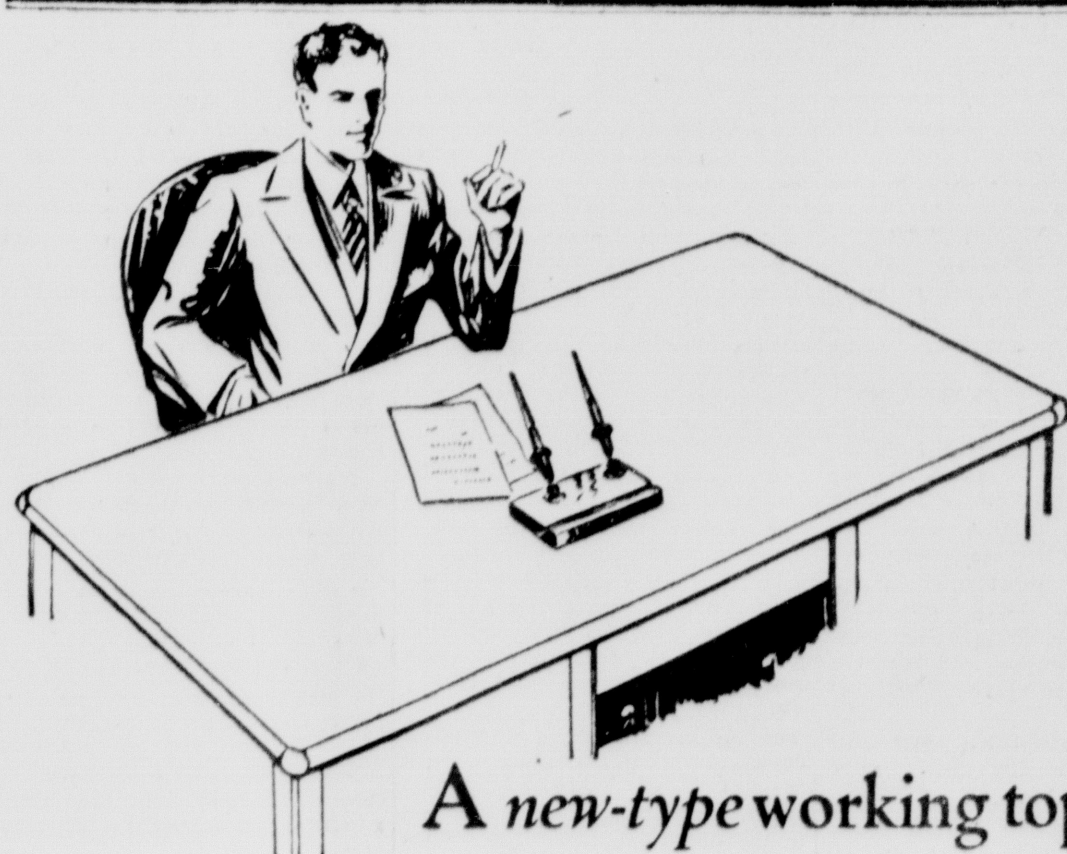

In the high hurdles, Dave Denny of Rockford, the state champion, is expected to encounter trouble from John Collinge of Maine high, who stepped over the tall timbers at the Evanston meet in 14.8. Robert Peacock of Woodstock is expected to star in the 200 yard low hurdles.

Dan Canham of Oak Park, who leaped 6 feet, 2 1/2 inches to win the district meet, is a standout favorite to take the high jump, while Clark Shaughnessy, Jr., of Chicago's Hyde Park is the likely winner of the pole vault. Keen fights for individual titles are expected to the broad jump, shotput, discus and javelin events.

Rain Again Stops Triangular Meet

Rain again caused cancellation of the triangular track and field meet between Dixon, Princeton and DePue high schools that was to have been held in Princeton Tuesday afternoon.

Originally scheduled for Friday, May 1, the meet was postponed until yesterday when it rained again. It is believed the meet will be abandoned now as the state meet in which four Dixon boys must compete will be held Friday and Saturday, and the week following is the N. C. I. conference classic at DeKalb.

A new-type working top on a new-type Skyscraper Desk

If only for its top of rolled-edge leather-like linoleum, the new Shaw-Walker Skyscraper Desk would win at sight a place in your office. But note this modern desk's other features—"Skyscraper" construction, drawers that open smoothly and silently, Bakelite drawer pulls, sturdy side panels, artistic, quarter-rounded beaded legs, rich bronze feet. At last—a desk with the appearance of the finest wood at the price of welded steel construction. Your choice of finishes—mahogany or walnut with green top, or green with warm brown top. It's the desk you've always wanted!

Important! Come in and see the organization features; see how this new desk is organized for work.

INSECTS OUTGROW THEIR SKELETONS AND SHED THEM, FROM TIME TO TIME.

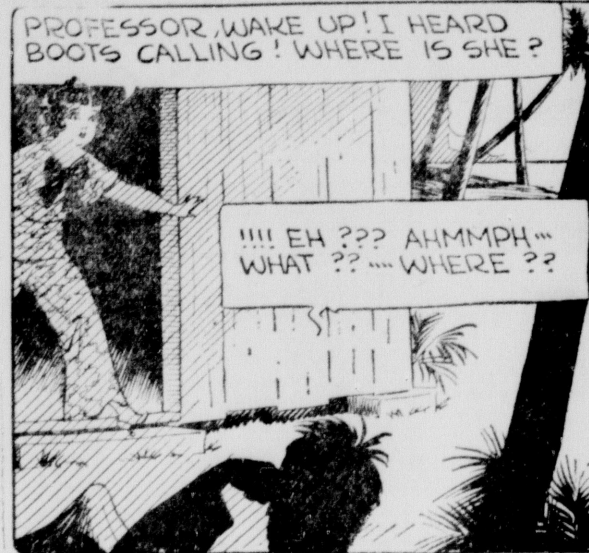

INSECTS have their skeletons on the outside of their bodies, and, since the skeleton is hard and inelastic, something must be done to accommodate the increase in size. This problem is solved for by periodic molting of the outside skin, or skeleton. Mayflies molt 20 times or more before reaching maturity.

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

FRANCISCO DE PAULA SANTANDER, great revolutionary patriot of Colombia, had fought under Simon Bolivar, "Liberator of South America," for independence from Spain. He had become vice president, and actual governor, of the newly formed Republic of Colombia when, after one of Bolivar's frequent expeditions, a plot against the liberator's life was discovered.

Santander was accused of complicity and sentenced to death. Later, the sentence commuted to banishment, Santander traveled in Europe. In 1832, the Republic of New Granada was formed, and Santander was recalled to fill the presidency of that infant government. For four years, he directed the progress of his country, and encouraged public education, science, and art.

After his presidency, he was elected to the national congress for two terms, and died May 5, 1840, at the age of only 43. His portrait appears on several stamps of Colombia. One is shown here.

Mother's Day was observed very beautifully in the various churches of the town. A lovely program was given in the Brethren church Sunday morning which was followed by a sermon from the pastor, Rev. Paul Studebaker.

In the Presbyterian church Rev. C. P. Blekking preached a wonderful Mother's Day sermon and the choir rendered a special anthem. Rev. Henke, pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran church gave one of his famous sermons which was very appropriate for Mother's Day. Rev. L. E. Winter of the Methodist church preached a special sermon and special music was enjoyed.

The churches were very beautiful with large bouquets of flowers. Mother's Day of 1936 will long be remembered by the folks who were present at the church services.

Marion Norris Champion.

The Des Moines, Iowa, Tribune carries a picture of Miss Marion Norris and an article which we copy. Miss Marion is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Norris of this place and graduated last year from the Franklin Grove Community high school, with honors. Her many friends here read the article with much interest. She is a student in Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa.

"Mount Vernon, Iowa—The grip of Lord Bacon on his pen just can't compare to the pen-holder grip of Marion Norris, 18, Cornell college co-ed, who trips all comers in ping pong here."

"Marion sandwiches her ping pong victories between Chaucer and Shakespeare—for the table is in the English classroom of Professor Clyde Tull."

His Idea.

"No sooner have the students picked their textbooks from the large oak center table in the classroom than the ping and ponging start out with a bang."

It's just another of the teaching innovations of Professor Tull, who doesn't expect his students to talk to and from his classes with their tortoise-rimmed spectacles buried in an anthology of poetry.

"And the registration of Marion Norris added the final impetus to the informal games."

Boys or Girls.

"Marion trims boys and girls alike. And she still remains in the top section of her classes."

For instance, there was Bob Thompson of Chicago. Bob is a large healthy lad resembling, in face and figure, the very literary Alexander Woolcott. Last semester Bob was whipping the boys right and left. And a girl—well, a co-ed couldn't be found who could hold a paddle to him.

"And then came Marion, who had just won her high school ping pong tournament at Franklin Grove, Ill. Now Marion takes the laurels from Thompson—and a girl is champion."

"Not So Good."

"Oh, I'm not so good," said the modest freshman. "I use a penholder grip—guess I'm too old to learn the right way—and I just play a hard, fast game. I don't practice much—I can't understand why the boys don't win."

"And the competition fades. The boys don't care to be beaten by a girl."

Mothers Entertained.

The Sunbeam class of the Presbyterian Sunday school with their teacher, Miss Blanche Colwell entertained their mothers Saturday afternoon with a Mother's Day party at the Colwell home.

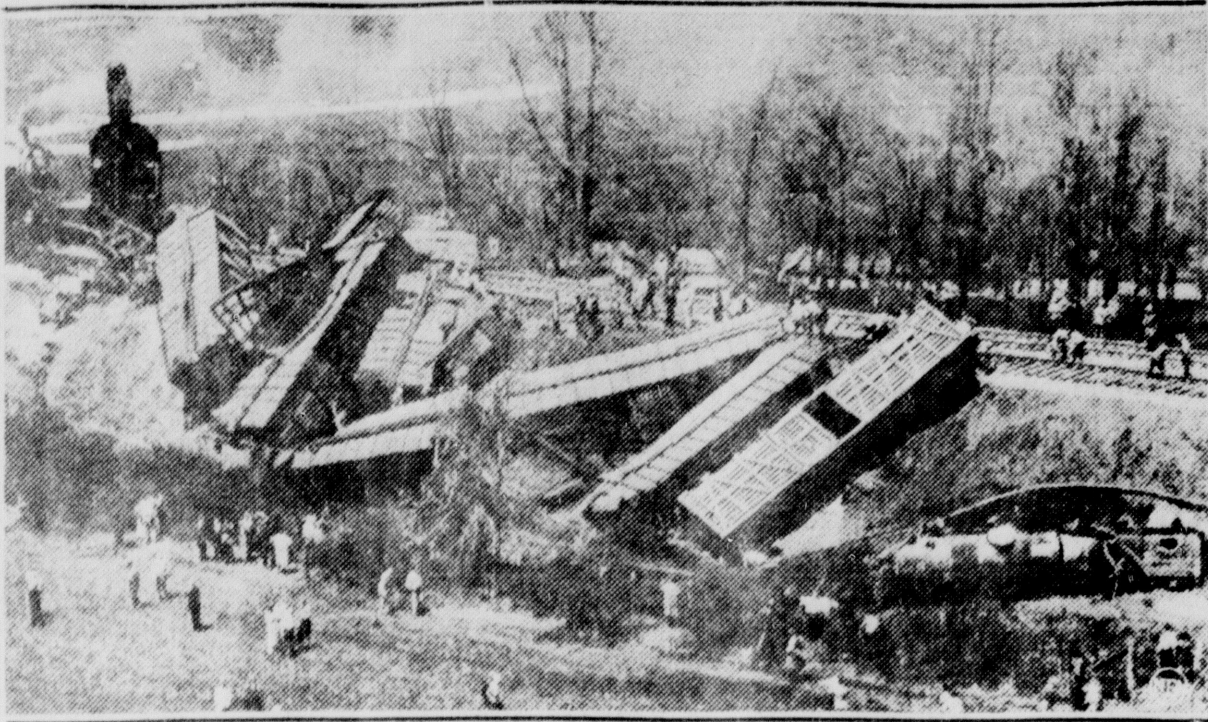

The afternoon was spent in playing various contest games at which Mrs. Black, Mrs. Wasson, Mrs. Miller and Miss Georgia Peterman won prizes. During the social hour lovely refreshments consisting of sandwiches, pickle, angel food cake with whipped cream and tea was served. On each plate was a favor, nosegay made from small gum drops which was very neat and attractive.

The mothers present were: Mrs. Ada Peterman, Mrs. Frank Hatch, Mrs. Roy Miller, Mrs. Will Black, Mrs. Charles Pyle, Mrs. C. P. Blekking, Mrs. Clarence Yecum, Mrs. Winn Wasson and Mrs. Rebecca Colwell.

A Happy Day.

Mother's Day and three family birthdays were celebrated with a picnic dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Myers by the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. Perry Myers and sons Robert and

Where Men and Cattle Died in Train Blast

With this string of wrecked freight cars, tangled together like shattered toys, testifying to the tremendous force of the blast that killed three trainmen and many cattle, here is the scene of disaster following explosion of a locomotive, six miles south of Batavia, N. Y. When the engine, shown at extreme right, blew up, the engineer, fireman and head brakeman, died instantly. Forty cattle were crushed to death, in the smashed, derailed stock cars shown at left. Other cattle were maimed so seriously that they were shot.

Richard; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bennett and sons Donald, Teddy and Dean from north of town; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Myers and little son Jack Everett of Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Hall and daughters Marjorie and Patsy of Wheaton; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smith and Randall Myers of Chicago. The birthdays honored were Mrs. J. E. Myers, Cloyd Hall and Marjorie Hall.

P. T. A. Picnic.

The Parent-Teachers Association are making plans for a community picnic to be held Wednesday, May 27, which will culminate this year's activities. This picnic will take the place of the separate room and class picnics which have always been held and it is hoped will provide a pleasant day of entertainment for all the children, parents and patrons of the school districts. The following committees have been appointed to have charge of the various plans for the picnic.

Refreshments—Mrs. C. A. Blocher, chairman; Mrs. Guy Moulton, Mrs. Adam Schafer, Mrs. Charles Pyle, Mrs. Henry Wendel, Mrs. F. E. Duncan, Mrs. Harry Kint, Mrs. Wm Crawford.

Arrangements—Fred C. Gross, chairman; Wm. Herbst, Earl Fish, Charles Howard and Charles Kelley.

Program committee—Mrs. Wm. Black, chairman; Mrs. George L. Spangler, Mrs. Earl Buck, Mrs. Jay Miller.

Races and contests—Walter Heckman, chairman; Arthur Watson, Neil Fox, O. C. Couzens.

Watch the papers for further announcements.

Entertain Mothers.

Saturday at 2:00 o'clock a gay party gathered at the home of Mrs. Paul Studebaker, when the Pioneer Girls' club entertained their mothers. A brief program opened the meeting when the club sang greetings. Marjorie Miller and Maxine Kelley gave recitations. Aline Smith rendered a vocal solo, and the club quartet sang. With Josephine Kelley as announcer, a trio consisting of Alice Jacobs, June Miller and Mildred Unger gave a humorous sketch entitled, "So That's What's the Matter With You." The social committee led the entire group in several interesting games followed by the serving of delicious refreshments. Those present were: Mrs. O. D. Buck, Mrs. Oliver Marone and Betty, Mrs. C. Seebach and Gertrude Unger, Mrs. Ruth Kelley and daughters, Josephine and Maxine, Mrs. Sherwood Jacobs and Alice, Mrs. Perry Chronister and Elizabeth, Mrs. Earl Buck and Darlene, Mrs. Oscar Stearn and Ruth, Mrs. Jesse Nowles and Mary Margaret, Mrs. Ed Blank and Jeanne, Mrs. Dick Smith and Adeleine, Mrs. Jay Miller and June, Mrs. Arthur Miller and Marjorie, Mildred Unger, Hazel Blume and Mrs. Paul Studebaker.

Attorney and Mrs. E. E. Wingert and granddaughter Miss Jane of Dixon were callers at the home of Mrs. Adella Helmerhausen Sunday.

The students of Prof. T. W. Scott are preparing a memorial of their teacher to be dedicated this summer.

The Durand high school won first honors for the art class and first honors for dramatics at Bloomington in the contest sponsored by the Illinois Wesleyan university. Prof. Harvey W. Loy is the principal. The scholarship in the college of liberal arts was awarded to Miss Evelyn Loy. Prof. Loy is a brother and Miss Evelyn a niece of Mrs. H. W. Helmerhausen.

A marker will be dedicated on Memorial Day at the grave of Lucy Brayton Tolman Cook.

Frank Clark Brayton of Lyons, Ia. will make the address. All alumni and friends of the public school are invited.

California Talk

A stereopticon lecture depicting Southern California, enroute and return, illustrated by about 80 beautiful slides, will be presented by Earl R. Buck in the Franklin Grove Presbyterian church next Sunday evening at the 7:30 evening service.

Most of the scenes are taken personally by Mr. Buck and it is considered a great privilege to see these places through his kindness. By all means, see these pictures and hear the fine message he gives. The church choir will sing. The pastor will conduct a devotional service. The high school male quartet will sing and there will be special instrumental music.

Enjoy Banquet

The Junior-Senior banquet was held May 8 in the Dixon Hotel at Dixon. Because the senior class motto is "Tonight, we launch, where shall we anchor?" the banquet was given in the form of a world tour. The invitations were made to represent tickets and the program to represent a ship's log. At 6:45 all sat down to dinner, 41 being present at a horseshoe shaped table. Since the senior colors are blue and silver, the table was artistically decorated in the class colors. At the head of the table, or the bend in the horseshoe, sat all the speakers and those taking part on the program. The section for the speakers was flooded in blue light from wall flood lights. At a centerpiece here at the head of the table, a large wood anchor covered with silver paper and standing upright was used. It was surrounded by tiny blue lights, nestled in crepe paper to represent waves. On both sides of the anchor was a bowl of sweet peas, the senior class flower.

Between the second and third courses the welcome to the Senior passengers was given by Florence Blekking, the vice president of the Junior class. The response to the welcome was given by Orville Fess, Senior class president. After the dinner the ship's company adjourned to the hold or the basement, where they were received by the captain, Supt. Hanson. They then sailed on from New York, piloted by Skipper David Studebaker, Junior class president. They came to Ireland where they took an inland trip and met some local characters Raymond Patterson and Albert Wendel who presented to short skill. The guide was Betty Wasson. They then sailed on to Alexandria, Egypt, where a marvelous old class history was found and read by Pauline Kelly. From there, they sailed to Naples, Italy, where the street singers, Ione Butterbaugh and Florence Blekking, Clark Wasson and David Studebaker entertained them. From here they sailed to Delphi and at the famous oracle they gained the prophecy of the senior passengers. It was written by Mildred Bill and read by Georgia Peterman. From here they sailed on and on to Honolulu where some native girls, Betty Wasson and Georgia Peterman sang for them. Out of Honolulu they ran into a storm and the passengers made their wills. These were written and read by Bob Wasson. When they finally reached San Francisco, it was raining, but they sang their school songs and were cheered up. Thirty-four of the party then went to the Dixon theater where they witnessed the feature picture which was quite nautical. Everyone was suitably dressed, the girls wearing long summery dresses and the boys both dark and light suits, and all were happy.

Play a Big Event

One of the best plays ever presented for Franklin Grove people is promised by the cast of "Hubert, the Great," selected this year as the annual Senior class play. Ask any member of the cast and they will tell you that they enjoy the play themselves and at rehearsals, do they have fun? Come and join in the fun a week from next Friday at the Epworth League tabernacle on the camp ground. Some time this week or next you will be visited by members of the third room selling tickets for the event. Better get yours early for "standing room only" is the order of the day, when Curtis Comedians come to town. Remember the date, May 22 at the campgrounds. Reserve that night for the annual Senior play.

Richard Nash, English dandy and wit, was the most distinguished master of ceremonies the world has ever known. He presided over the assembly and gaming rooms at Bath, famous watering place of the early 18th century, and his word was law in the matter of deportment there.

Previously announcing it to be choice fruits of the country and astounding his guests, who knew the barren land was fit only for hunting and gold mining, James V, 16th century Scottish king, served a "dessert" of covered dishes heaped high with newly coined gold pieces.

First of all, we will save from one-half to one-third of the money we planned to spend.

We will save on ice because these new refrigerators are super-insulated which makes the ice last from four to seven days.

Then, because foods don't dry out in the moisture laden air which only ice refrigeration gives, we won't waste any food value we pay for.

Finally, we will get the maximum in refrigeration at the lowest possible cost.
